

The RDCTT attends Arizona Construction Career Days (AZCCD):

The AZCCD is an event held at the Arizona national guard base. There were 3,000 high school students bused in from nine counties in the state of AZ for the two-day event. There were 62 exhibitors representing all aspects of the construction industry.

This event was started 20 years ago. It was started to show students that there are lucrative careers available that don't require expensive and time-consuming college education.
