

Live auction of two items during the dinner

Bids will be placed using the chat feature on Zoom.
Auction will end at 7:00 pm. Must be present to win.

Auction item #1 is an Italian dinner for 4 people prepared and delivered by Rev. Roger; consisting of appetizer, salad, entrée, dessert, and a bottle of wine.

Rev. Roger will consult with the winner on the menu.

He is donating all the ingredients and his labor;
the full amount paid by the winner will go to the church. (Thank you, Rev. Roger!)
Starting bid will be $50, and each bid after that must be at least $10 increments.

Auction item #2 is a painting 10x10" by fine artist Kevin Winger, (who has donated small paintings on easels to our Opportunity Drawings in the past) Kevin paints with palette knives, so the effect, especially of the waves, is 3-dimensional.
You can see a photo of the painting of a sailboat in the January 21st E-Newsletter.
Starting bid will be $50, and each bid after that must be at least $10 increments.

Opportunity Drawings

Our beloved friend Mark Higginbotham collected baskets - Tom Brzeczek generously donated many of them for our Opportunity Drawings. Knowing that many of us would like to have a memento of Mark, the notation (MH basket) in the description indicates prize using his basket.

Gus

The serious sentry, takes his corner post each morning and tracks the ever-changing world around him. He watches in all directions as the traffic ebbs and flows through his piece of the world. He ponders walkers, drivers, bicycle riders, mail carriers, cats and even his fellow canines as they pass through his day. And when offered a well-deserved scratch, pat or under-the-chin rub he never refuses his just reward.

Intensity

Immersed in beauty, a young Chinese girl intensely creates golden art between her fingertips. The colors of the rainbow inspire her as she transforms simple materials into a glowing treasure of jewels. Harmony surrounds her.

16. Italgo Gift Card $25
