The Lessons

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Acts 15: 1-6

Certain people came down from Judea to Antioch and were teaching the believers: “Unless you are circumcised, according to the custom taught by Moses, you cannot be saved.” This brought Paul and Barnabas into sharp dispute and debate with them. So Paul and Barnabas were appointed, along with some other believers, to go up to Jerusalem to see the apostles and elders about this question. The church sent them on their way, and as they traveled through Phoenicia and Samaria, they told how the Gentiles had been converted. This news made all the believers very glad. When they came to Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church and the apostles and elders, to whom they reported everything God had done through them.

Then some of the believers who belonged to the party of the Pharisees stood up and said, “The Gentiles must be circumcised and required to keep the law of Moses.”

The apostles and elders met to consider this question.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

John 15: 1-8

“I am the true vine, and my Father is the gardener. He cuts off every branch in me that bears no fruit, while every branch that does bear fruit he prunes so that it will be even more fruitful. You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you. Remain in me, as I also remain in you. No branch can bear fruit by itself; it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me.

"I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing. If you do not remain in me, you are like a branch that is thrown away and withers; such branches are picked up, thrown into the fire and burned. If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. This is to my Father's glory, that you bear much fruit, showing yourselves to be my disciples.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Bible Study

Gospel: John 5: 1-9

After Jesus healed the son of the official in Capernaum, there was a festival of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

Now in Jerusalem by the Sheep Gate there is a pool, called in Hebrew Beth-zatha, which has five porticoes. In these lay many invalids-- blind, lame, and paralyzed. One man was there who had been ill for thirty-eight years. When Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had been there a long time, he said to him, "Do you want to be made well?" The sick man answered him, "Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up; and while I am making my way, someone else steps down ahead of me." Jesus said to him, "Stand up, take your mat and walk." At once the man was made well, and he took up his mat and began to walk. Now that day was a sabbath.

Reflection on John 5: 1-9

This Gospel passage opens with Jesus traveling to Jerusalem. When he arrived in Jerusalem, Jesus entered Jerusalem through the Sheep Gate, which was one of several entrances into Jerusalem. Near this gate was a pool called Bethesda. This was a large area that had five entrances. These five entrances were filled with the sick, the lame, and the dying.

Lying at the Sheep Gate was a man who had been there for 38 years. Can you imagine yourself living in a public area for 38 years? Did the man not have any family? Had his family rejected him? Were they too poor to care for him? Can you imagine not being in the midst of your family? The situation must have been debilitating for this man, physically, emotionally, and spiritually. Had the poor man come to the Sheep Gate primarily to beg or did he still have hope that one day he actually might be healed?

When Jesus came into Jerusalem, he saw the man lying on the floor. Jesus could tell from the man's debilitated appearance that he had been ill for many, many years. Jesus quietly walked over to the man and asked him a simple but very powerful question: "Do you want to be well?" I wonder if the man's inner response was: "Well, of course, I want to be well! Who wouldn't?"

The man did not answer the question that Jesus had posed. Rather, he said to Jesus: "I have no one to help me into the water when it is stirred up." He told Jesus that by the time he got to the pool, others had already gotten into the water and there was no room for him. Jesus listened intently to the man and then quietly, yet powerfully told the man to stand up, take up his mat, and walk. Jesus did not do a dramatic healing. Rather he quietly and lovingly spoke to the man.

The man immediately stands up, picks up his mat, and walks! It must have taken him a few moments to get his balance after not using his legs for such a long time. What a life changing moment this was for the man! He had been on the sidelines of life for many years. Now he could be active and involved once again. Perhaps he could even have a trade and actually support his family. No longer would he have to beg and be pitied. Perhaps he would be able to help other people who were ill, poor, and unable to sustain themselves.

When Jesus spoke the words: "Rise, take up your mat and walk," a whole new world opened up for this man. Those simple yet healing words changed the man and his life forever. What a wonderful gift to receive. Today may we be open and listening to Jesus' healing words for us. May we be attentive and listen with the ear of our hearts.
