Scrumdiddly Ice Cream Shop
Travis Boland & Andria Boland

A Sweet Spot in Marana

How one local ice cream shop is bringing joy, connection, and delicious traditions to the neighborhood.

Sweet Beginnings

Marana has been home for us for over a decade. We always wanted to start a business that brought joy to our customers and allowed us to be a part of a community. We figured everyone loves ice cream, and we knew we could create a space that would bring smiles. During our business planning process, we found out we were going to be having a little girl, and that drove us even more to make this work. Our little CEO was born just a couple of months before the shop opened, and she has been the star of every event. This shop has allowed us to do everything together as a new family, and we can't wait to watch our business and our little Audrey grow.

Behind the Counter

The term "super premium" actually has a specific process required to achieve that title. It's what makes the ice cream so creamy and rich. The handmade stuffed cookies are baked in small batches to create a quality product as well. In the shop, the motto among our team is "friendliness and cleanliness", and we take pride in hiring the best staff that will always greet you with a smile.

We want people to feel like they have discovered something both new and nostalgic. From reminiscing about the classic midwestern flavors to discovering a little candy Whopper at the bottom of your cone, we hope families can create new traditions and continue old ones at our shop.

Community Scoop

From day one, the local community has been incredibly supportive. On opening day, a line of over a hundred eager customers formed hours before we opened, making it such a special moment for our family as we watched our hard work come to life. Being a part of the Marana Chamber of Commerce has also connected us with so many other local business owners who uplift and encourage one another.

Giving back has always been a priority for us. We've loved participating in percentage nights with several elementary schools in the area, as well as joining local markets, family events, and fundraisers to support organizations and the families who support us.

Message from MAYOR POST

It is both an honor and a privilege to serve this remarkable community. The Town of Marana has grown into a community our residents are truly proud to call home. As one of the fastest-growing communities in Arizona, our success did not happen by chance. It is the result of years of strong and purposeful leadership from our Town Council and a commitment to excellent public service carried out daily by our dedicated Town staff.

As Marana continues to grow, we remain committed to building upon this strong foundation. Our vision is to create a community that offers an exceptional quality of life, supports a diverse economy, and continues to be a vibrant place to live, work, and raise a family.

This is an exciting time for our Town. We continue to welcome new businesses, new families, and new ideas, each fueling Marana's momentum and opening the door to greater opportunities. While we embrace this progress, we also remain deeply committed to fostering strategic growth that enhances the well-being of our entire community and preserves the character that makes Marana unique.

Our business community plays a vital role in this effort. Not only as a key driver of our local economy, but as a true partner in shaping Marana's long-term success. Thank you for your investment and your commitment to helping Marana thrive.

Marana's future is bright, and together, we will ensure it remains a place that all of us are proud to call home.

Message from Town Manager TERRY ROZEMA

As the fastest-growing community in Southern Arizona, our Town continues to attract new families, businesses, and organizations. This growth is a testament not only to the appeal of our Town but also to the dedication and vision of the individuals who have shaped it into the vibrant community it is today.

As we grow, we remain committed to upholding the high quality of life that defines our Town. Our mission is clear: to provide five-star service to a thriving community. Whether by enhancing our infrastructure, investing in public safety, supporting local businesses, or expanding community services and amenities, our team works with purpose to ensure residents and businesses receive the service they deserve.

With growth comes new challenges, and we are addressing them by making strategic investments in critical areas. We are strengthening our transportation network, expanding water infrastructure, and enhancing community amenities. These efforts are designed to ensure our community remains a place where families and businesses can flourish.

One of the most exciting projects on the horizon is the realization of a vision many years in the making. For a long time, we have dreamed of creating a vibrant gathering place where people can shop, dine, and experience the unique culture of Marana. That vision is now coming to life. The Town is partnering with a private developer to launch Phase

One of the Downtown Marana project. Located across from the Marana Aquatic and Recreation Center, this first phase will include a restaurant and brewery on 19 acres of Town-owned land, marking the beginning of what will become a hub of activity and community life.

Looking ahead, we are excited for the future and remain dedicated to providing five-star quality service to our thriving community. I invite each of you to join us in shaping the next chapter of our Town's success.

Get Outside and Discover Marana!

We're lucky to call Marana home—a place where desert beauty meets deep roots and everyday adventure.

We invite you to be a tourist in your own town. Start by taking a walk or bike ride along The Loop, with the newest section of this 137-mile paved trail right here in our community. Explore peaceful desert views, birding hotspots, and wide-open skies just steps from home.

Spend a weekend hiking or mountain biking in the Tortolita Mountains, or exploring trails lined with saguaros in Ironwood Forest National Monument and Saguaro National Park West.

Tee off on championship-level golf courses surrounded by unforgettable desert scenery, enjoy a luxury spa day or resort dining experience.

Our town's history runs deep—discover ancient petroglyphs and stone mortars carved by the ancestors of today's O'odham people at Los Morteros and Picture Rocks.

Experience Marana's rich agricultural and ranching heritage—from working farms and rodeo traditions to the cowboy spirit that still shapes our community today.

When your out-of-town friends and relatives come to visit, show them what makes Marana special. Take them shopping and dining at locally loved spots, explore our scenic parks and trails together, and share a bit of the adventure and hospitality that makes Marana such a great place to live—and to visit.

TANGERINE Skies

It isn't just a play on the name of a street in North Marana – it's reality!

Sunsets are one of the things that Arizona is most well-known for, and Marana is no exception. As night falls, the western sky turns a brilliant orange color, with the silhouettes of the mountains and saguaro cacti in the foreground. Keep your phone or camera handy to capture some of these striking sunsets!

Here are some of our top places to watch the sunset:

The Highlands at Dove Mountain (1)

A top-rated, championship-level golf course with a restaurant in its clubhouse, known for its striking mountain & desert vistas.

Topgolf Rooftop (2)

Take in the tangerine glow of the sunset while enjoying delicious food, drinks, and time with friends. Come to play golf, or just to hang out and take in the views.

Continental Ranch Area (7)

A neighborhood that backs right up to the Tucson Mountains, with many westward-facing patios, parks, and other areas for views of the sunset with the mountains in the foreground.

Sanctuary Cove (3)

A quiet, peaceful place in the shadow of the Tucson Mountains, great for meditating, strolling through the desert, and photographing the sunset.

Tortolita Mountains (4), especially the summit of the Upper Javelina Trail.

A short hike up a hill gives you 360-degree views of the area's SIX mountain ranges, the orange glow in the west, and the pink glow of the Catalina Mountains at sunset.

1) The Highlands at Dove Mountain 2) Topgolf 3) Sanctuary Cove 4) Wild Burro Trail & Tortolita Mountain Trail System 5) Saguaro National Park 6) Ironwood Forest National Monument 7) Continental Ranch Neighborhood 8) Upper Javelina Trail

Saguaro National Park West (5)

Expansive west-facing views let you compose that quintessential "Arizona" photo of a sunset with saguaro cacti silhouetted in the foreground.

Aside from these places, you can also take in the sunset from anywhere else around town – just find an area that's slightly elevated, with a clear view to the west – simple as that. It's one of the best things about Marana; you don't have to work for your sunset views, they're universal here.

The El Rio Preserve

Anza Trail At 250 Years

Marana is home to a unique connection to history: the Juan Bautista de Anza National Historic Trail. 250 years ago, the Anza Expedition passed through our region. Residents and new neighbors can follow the same route that Spanish explorer Juan Bautista de Anza and his group traveled in 1775, experiencing the same landscapes and historic sites—by foot, bike, or car—while connecting our town’s past with the present.

In October 1775, Juan Bautista de Anza led an expedition of 240 civilians and over 1,000 head of livestock from Sonora, Mexico, to San Francisco, California. On October 27–28, 1775, the group traveled through what is now Marana, camping at Puerto del Azotado and Oit Par, with a daytime rest near today’s Marana Heritage River Park. These sites offer residents a rare glimpse into the lives of those who shaped the region over two centuries ago.

Puerto del Azotado

The Puerto del Azotado campsite is located at the present-day El Rio Preserve (10190 N. Coachline Blvd., in the Continental Ranch neighborhood). The area maintains a riparian wetland environment, much like what the area around the Santa Cruz River would have looked like at the time of the Expedition. You can see over 260 species of birds and other wildlife at the preserve. The campsite’s location is clearly marked with an Anza Trail sign and interpretive signage.

The El Rio Preserve provides excellent access to The Loop shared use path, where you can bike or walk a section of the National Historic Trail.

For a look even further into the past, visit Los Morteros Conservation Area, a well-preserved example of a Hohokam village site located just to the south.

Oit Par

The second campsite, Oit Par (thought to mean “Old Town” in the O’odham language) is located just beyond the Marana Town Limits, right where Trico Road crosses the Santa Cruz River. The site is marked with interpretive signage and a shaded area.

The Oit Par site is also located near the Marana Pumpkin Patch, one of Southern Arizona’s premier fall attractions.

If you look to the west from Oit Par, you can see several small mountains and hills. These are located in Ironwood Forest National Monument and would have been viewed by the Expedition’s members.

Marana Heritage River Park

Around mid-day on October 27th, 1775, the expedition rested near what is now Marana Heritage River Park. An interpretive sign along The Loop marks the approximate location where the expedition rested. The park is home to the Marana Fall Festival, which takes place in mid-October each year.

Marana is a great starting point for exploring the broader Anza Trail in Southern Arizona. The San Xavier del Bac Mission, the Presidio of Tucson (located in Downtown Tucson), the Tubac Presidio, and Tumacacori National Historic Park – all of which were standing and operating in 1775 – are all located within an hour’s drive of Marana via Interstates 10 and 19.

Scan here to learn more about the Anza Expedition, and their route through Marana:

What is a Sonoran Hot Dog? & Where to Find Them in Marana, Arizona

By Jackie Alpers, award-winning food writer and photographer

What is a Sonoran Hot Dog?

A Sonoran hot dog is a bacon-wrapped hot dog served in a soft bollio-style bun with pinto beans, onions, tomatoes, jalapeño sauce, yellow mustard and mayonnaise.

Like any regional hot dog, the Sonoran Dog has its unique and specific components, starting with the bun which is cooked on a grill or griddle on both sides in a little bit of butter until browned. It is then split down the side and filled with about a tablespoon each of grilled onions and whole pinto beans.

A hot dog of any variety that is usually wrapped in bacon is then nestled in and topped with chopped tomatoes and raw onions. Lines of jalapeño sauce, yellow mustard and mayonnaise are then squirted over the whole thing. A grilled yellow chile is served on the side, and if you're lucky, that chile is stuffed with cheese and also wrapped in bacon.

Let's be frank (pun intended), I contest that this regional delicacy isn't really about the hot dog itself or even the bacon. A truly great Sonoran hot dog is really all about the accoutrements (spoken with a French accent) – and the soft, slightly sweet bun that becomes almost pastry like when browned and that is hearty enough to hold all those toppings.

Sonoran Hot Dogs in Marana, Arizona

Sonoran Hot Dogs originated in the city of Hermosillo located in the state of Sonora, Mexico and gravitated north to Tucson, Arizona in the early 1990's where they have become a symbol of the region's Sonoran-style cuisine. It is an emblem of Southern Arizona's cultural connection to both the United States and to the state of Sonora in Mexico from which it originated.

The Sonoran Dog has naturally migrated to Marana where it is embraced by local restaurants across all walks of life. You will find them at roadside stands, food carts and trucks, mom and pop Mexican restaurants and high-end resorts.

Where to Find Them

Many Marana restaurants have been inspired to create their own unique variations of the dish. Including bacon is up to the chef; some places either eliminate the bacon all together, or use bacon bits, which may or may not be vegetarian. These are all acceptable variations.

Some also might eliminate either the jalapeño sauce or the mustard, and/or make a sauce that combines the jalapeños and mayonnaise.

However, there are deviations that are more controversial, like adding ketchup, using a different kind of bun, adding cheese, corn and/or other vegetables, or using refried beans instead of whole "charro style" beans.

Head to our website for a complete list of the Sonoran Hot Dogs you'll find in Marana!

Humongous Fungus Among Us

By Jackie Alpers

A Marana farming family grows exotic gourmet mushrooms and heritage grains to share with their community.

A little bit of luck during our darkest days can change everything.

In June of 1941, Bing K. Wong Sr. was convinced that he was going to lose his Marana-area farm because he had mistakenly planted the farm's first crop of cotton two months too late. That mistake resulted in a "miracle crop". On December 8th, 1941, the United States declared war on Japan, entering World War II. Almost overnight, cotton was declared a wartime commodity, because it was used to make uniforms, tents and bandages. The price of cotton skyrocketed from about 8 cents a pound to over a dollar. (Back then, that was a lot of money.) Since most of the other farmers had already sold their crop, Wong, who was one of the last farmers with cotton still in the ground, ended up making a small fortune! He took the proceeds from that treasure trove and reinvested it back into the farm.

Brian Wong, Bing's grandson and current president of BKW Farms said that Bing, "loved to buy land sight-unseen... if it was for a really good price." By the 1970s, the Wong family was farming about 20,000-25,000 acres in Casa Grande, Marana, Wilcox, and California. "That's a lot of land for just a family farm to cover, and they weren't doing a very good job at it, so they re-centralized their entire farming operation to Marana", where they are currently farming 294 acres of organic fields.

In 2013, the family decided that they wanted to take a more farm-to-table approach and started growing, processing and distributing organic heirloom grains local to the region. As part of the Partner Farmer Program, Native Seed Search provided BKW Farms with about 2,000 pounds of White Sonoran Wheat seed which the farm was able to exchange with the program after harvest.

Then, in 2017, the farmers got into the exotic mushroom business. For the first few years, wheat straw from their organic fields was used as the growing media, and the mushrooms were grown in a shipping container.

They later realized that if they grew the mushrooms in tents, they could educate people about the process, teaching them how to grow and provide fresh produce in small and/or urban spaces. The tents were set up in a vacant indoor building on the property which was used to simulate a downtown Tucson building that wasn't being utilized, so that budding future farmers could easily take what they learned and directly apply it to a real-world urban setting.

David Proctor, Vice President of BKW explained, "Someone can go in, set up tents and grow practically anything, reducing food miles to the consumer. We basically show them how to set up their own system and how easy and cost effective it really is to become a grower, if you choose to be. We're trying to ensure that farming and growing continues on into the next generation." BKW Farms currently produces a total of about 800 pounds of lion's mane, blue oyster and reishi mushrooms a week.

Lion's mane and blue oyster mushrooms.

David Proctor and Brian Wong in the grain processing and storage facility.

How Are the Mushrooms Grown?

Mushroom spores are introduced into bags filled with grain from the farm. The spores then colonize the entire block of grain which is subsequently added into a mushroom substrate consisting of a soy hull and oak substrate mix. Each seed of grain becomes a vessel for the mycelium to take over and colonize that substrate.

The bags keep for two crop cycles per bag, and then the substrate is recycled back into the field or under fruit trees on the farm.

Why Are Exotic and Gourmet Mushrooms So Popular?

The types of gourmet and exotic mushrooms that BKW Farms specialize in are rapidly growing in popularity and desirability. That's because in addition to their meaty texture and taste, which is sometimes compared to seafood or steak, they are also widely lauded for their unique health benefits. Lion's mane mushrooms are being studied for their positive effect on brain health, while blue oyster and reishi contain a compound that may help reduce the absorption of cholesterol in the gut, stimulate the immune system and enhance its ability to fight infections.

Where to BUY & TRY

Thrive MARRANNA

Message from Marana Police Department

Police Chief
JEFF PRIDGETT

To our residents and businesses,

The Marana Police Department is proud to serve a community that values working together to keep our town safe and welcoming. Our staff is dedicated to making Marana a place where everyone can live, work, and enjoy themselves safely.

We are deeply grateful for the steadfast support from the community, the Town Manager’s Office, and the Town Council. This strong support has enabled us to attract and retain an outstanding team of department members dedicated to our mission of providing unparalleled service and unwavering protection to every person in the Town of Marana, and to do so with uncompromised integrity.

Through successful recruiting and retention efforts, we are proud to have made meaningful investments in improving our services. We’ve added staff to our Traffic Enforcement Unit to help make roads safer, while also expanding our Community Problems Unit and Criminal Investigations Unit.

These improvements ensure timely investigations and dedicated support for crime victims, highlighting our commitment to proactive service and building trust in the community.

We believe safety is a shared responsibility, based on communication, respect, and building trust through engagement. Events like National Night Out offer residents an excellent opportunity to connect with our agency members in a friendly, informal setting. Our youth academies are an excellent initiative that empowers the next generation by providing insights into law enforcement and encouraging understanding and respect from an early age. Additionally, the Citizens Academy enhances our community by educating residents about our operations and showing how they can actively help improve public safety.

Whether you’re a lifelong resident or just visiting, know that our staff is here to listen, assist, and keep you safe.

Thank you for being a vital part of what makes Marana such a wonderful place. Together, we will keep building a safe and lively community for everyone!

Get to Know Northwest Fire District

The Northwest Fire District, led by Fire Chief Brad Bradley, is an innovative provider of allhazards emergency response. District services include fire suppression, prevention, and emergency medical services. At Northwest Fire, our mission is to save lives, protect property, and care for our community. Protecting more than 137,000 residents and over 3,000 businesses, the Northwest Fire District covers a 155-square mile area including the majority of the Town of Marana and areas of unincorporated Pima County.

Designated by the State of Arizona as a Premier EMS Provider, we provide advanced life support

(ALS) ambulance transportation for the most injured or ill patients within the District. Every Northwest Fire District firefighter is certified as an Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) or Paramedic. In addition to the full spectrum of fire suppression activities we provide, Northwest Fire manages a Hazardous Materials Team and Technical Rescue Team for swift water, confined space, and rugged-terrain rescues. We support progressive fire prevention codes and provide a variety of community education programs.

Northwest Fire District is internationally accredited and has an Insurance Service Office (ISO) Classification Rating of I. These designations reflect our commitment to ensuring our community receives high-quality and cost-efficient fire, emergency medical, and prevention services.

Governed by an elected five-member board, the Northwest Fire District is funded through limited assessed value property taxes. We welcome the public to attend our monthly Board Meetings held on the fourth Tuesday of the month at the Northwest Fire District Administrative Complex, located at 13535 N. Marana Main Street.

Celebrating 100 YEARS of Excellence in Education

From Dan Streeter, Ed.D., Superintendent

For more information, visit MaranaUSD.org

As the community's K-12 school district, the Marana Unified School District (MUSD) is proud to employ more than 2,000 dedicated teachers and staff serving 13,000 students across 20 campuses. As our community grows, so does MUSD. Our district is home to community preschools and Play & Learn (PAL) Preschool, 10 elementary schools, 2 middle schools, 3 K-8 schools, and 4 high schools.

This year, MUSD proudly celebrates 100 years of serving Marana and Northwest Tucson, a remarkable milestone that reflects a century of commitment to education, growth, and community partnership. Throughout our history, we have remained dedicated to helping students become lifelong learners and engaged citizens who contribute to a stronger community.

The 2025 Education Recovery Scorecard ranked MUSD in the top 1% of Arizona districts for academic growth, with students performing above 2019 levels in reading and math. MUSD is one of only four districts statewide – out of 230 – to show higher student achievement today than before the pandemic. This success reflects our focus on continuous improvement, teamwork, and high standards across every school, which have also led to stronger school letter grades from the Arizona Department of Education.

Literacy remains a cornerstone of student success and a major focus across our classrooms. Learning to read allows students to explore, question, and understand their world. We have strengthened our literacy programs by expanding instructional time, refining and standardizing curriculum, and creating more opportunities for students to read and grow.

At the high school level, our students continue to achieve at exceptional levels. Last year, our students earned almost 500 industry certifications through Career and Technical Education programs, demonstrating their readiness for success in today's workforce. MUSD students also excel in academics, the arts, and athletics, earning superior ratings, awards, and recognition across a wide range of programs and competitions. We have alumni nationwide continuing their education at institutions across the country, including our state universities, Yale University, New York University, the U.S. Naval Academy, Cornell University, and many more.

As we honor the accomplishments of the past 100 years, we look ahead to the next century with confidence and purpose. The future of MUSD is bright and will be built through the continued partnership of our students, families, teachers, staff, and community. Together, we remain focused on empowering every student to achieve excellence, contribute meaningfully, and shape a bright future for our community. Thank you for your continued support!

MARANA HEALTH

A healthy Marana starts with healthy families, and Marana Health is building on nearly seven decades of trusted healthcare with a new name and a renewed focus on the people we serve.

This summer, we returned to our roots as MHC Healthcare became Marana Health. The name reflects where we began nearly 70 years ago and the community that shaped us, while pointing toward a future built on greater access, smarter systems, and deeper compassion. Across 11 convenient locations, we continue to offer the same trusted, whole person care.

Marana Health provides Medical, Behavioral Health, Dental, Pharmacy, Imaging, Urgent Care, Labs, Chiropractic, WIC, and more. Everything is designed to support families and reduce the need to travel far to get the care you need.

We also want to make care easier for every patient. When you come in, our teams help connect you to other services that support your health to keep care coordinated and convenient.

This year, we deployed athenaOne, a modern patient portal that makes it simple to schedule visits, message your care team, review records, and manage prescriptions.

In 2026, we are launching a new initiative focused on welcoming both our newest and our oldest community members into our care. This vision strengthens support for infants coming in for well baby checkups and for older adults who want to stay active, mobile, and connected.

Whether you're new to Marana Health or have been with us for years, we remain honored to provide heartfelt care for all generations.
