

December 1, 2020

Greetings Georgia Superintendents, Principal Supervisors, and School Leaders:

Save-the-Date! The Office of School Improvement is pleased to announce that our 2021 Winter Instructional Leadership Conference – REIMAGINING K-12 EDUCATION will be held virtually on March 2-3, 2021.

During this two-day event, participants will receive information on new and practical resources from divisions across the Georgia Department of Education (GaDOE), hear from successful practitioners across the state, and learn about available assistance from partnering agencies to support improvement efforts.

The conference plenary session, featuring Superintendent Woods, begins at 9:30 a.m. on Tuesday, March 2, 2021. Our GaDOE senior leadership will provide important information about available resources to support district leaders and staff in building school and district effectiveness to ensure a high-quality education for the whole child. Five concurrent sessions will be offered live on the afternoon of March 2 and all day March 3. On-demand access will follow the conference.

Request for Proposals:

We are looking for school and district leaders to share innovative and successful practices with our conference attendees, as our goal is to highlight the great work happening in Georgia schools in support of the whole child. Presentations can be done individually, in groups, or partnering with a GaDOE or RESA specialists to share success stories and provide detailed information on the processes used to increase instructional effectiveness, teacher and/or leadership capacity, and ultimately, student achievement. We invite all leaders to submit a request for proposal to present during the conference using this link: <https://form.jotform.com/202954699225163>. Detailed information can be found within the JotForm on the process and requirements. Proposals are due no later than end of business on Wednesday, January 6, 2021.

Registration:

We invite all district and school-level leaders to attend our winter virtual conference. Registration information will be released on our Events and Conference webpage on February 1, 2021. We encourage early registration, as seats are limited for each session. There are no registration fees associated with this conference.

Please do not hesitate to contact our professional learning program specialist, Dawn Ashmore dashmore@doe.k12.ga.us with questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Stephanie S. Johnson, Ed.D.

Deputy Superintendent

Office of School Improvement

Division of School and District Effectiveness

Save-the-Date

2021 WINTER VIRTUAL INSTRUCTIONAL LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE REIMAGINING K-12 EDUCATION

The Office of School Improvement invites you to save-the-date for our two-day virtual conference where participants will receive information from successful practitioners, partnering agencies, and GaDOE personnel addressing data-driven decision-making, decreasing the equity gap, evidenced-based instructional practices, creating teacher clarity, increasing subgroup achievement and graduation rates, and much more.

RECOMMENDED AUDIENCE

Superintendents, Assistant Superintendents, Curriculum Directors, Principals, Assistant Principals, School Improvement Specialists, Instructional Coaches, and Teacher Leaders

DATES AND TIMES

March 2, 2021 | 9:30 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

March 3, 2021 | 9:30 a.m. - 2:00 p.m.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

Registration information will be released on our Events and Conferences webpage at www.gadoe.org/SDEevents on February 1, 2021. Seats are limited for live sessions, plan to register early! There are no registration costs associated with this conference.

SESSION DELIVERY

All sessions will be offered live via GoTo Webinar and recorded for on-demand access following the conference.