Vaccination – Verification, Privacy and Protection

Date: Wednesday, September 8, 2021 | 1:00pm-2:30pm

Well are we on the path to recovery or are we just learning to live with COVID? Struggling to find your new “safe business” mode of operation? Now is the time to address the question of vaccinations in your workplace. This 90-minute webinar will look at the situations where asking or requiring for proof of vaccination is needed. Ensuring your employee’s privacy is paramount and there is a balance between customer and employee safety. During this webinar, we will speak to the need of privacy, the right to know of hazards, and we’ll review the perspectives of Human Rights, Public Health, and provincial Labour Ministries. There will be lots of information to share and the conversation will be highly engaging. Come and challenge your thinking, get some answers and together we will ensure your business’s competitive edge.

Employer/Employee conflict costs Canadian workplaces over 2 billion dollars a year! Time to tackle that cost and mitigate our risks. This 90-minute webinar guides attendees on how to use the results of a workplace investigation, and explore how mediation can help to create effective resolutions vs. confrontation. Internal and external solutions will be discussed as well as discerning the right approach for incidents and complaints. We will tackle harassment, performance issues, and champion a workplace culture with meaningful remedies. Resolve that conflict; no bandaid solutions, we offer fixes!
