Discuss how the nominee's continuing arts involvement affects a positive change or contributed and helped promote arts at Frederica Academy (500 Word Limit.)

Jim Jones is a 1979 graduate of Frederica Academy. Jim was named "Most Academic," "Most Likely to Succeed," and "Best All-Around." While at Frederica, Jim studied art with the inspirational Annalisa Taylor. Jim spent much of his time in Frederica's art studio and served as art aid to Ms. Taylor. Jim is a 1983 graduate of the University of Virginia. As a student of the Art Students League of New York, Jim has had the opportunity to study under some of the most influential artists and instructors of our era. Jim has been a professional working artist for over 30 years with studios in New York and Coastal Georgia. Jim is a versatile and prolific artist working in several mediums, genres, and scales. His oil paintings capture the beauty of the coastal landscapes, wildlife, and light in great detail with great accuracy. Jim is also known for his bold abstract works and dynamic sculptures. Jim's work was selected to be a part of the permanent collection of the Cloister hotel. Jim is an internationally acclaimed artist whose works can be found spanning the globe. A sampling of Jim's work can be seen at jimjonesart.com and soglogallery.com.
