Panthers run away from Red Terrors

In the matter of 14 plays, Langston Hughes blew open a close contest against Glynn Academy in the second round of the Class 6A playoffs and ran away with a 35-0 victory Friday at Glynn County Stadium.

Though the Terrors trailed 14-0 at halftime against the visiting Panthers, Glynn had held tough after falling down two scores early in the first half — narrowly missing on a few opportunities to add points — and got the ball to open the third quarter with a chance to cut the deficit in half.

Instead, the Terrors succumbed to a series of unfortunate events.

On the third play in the second half, Glynn Academy threw a pass behind the line of scrimmage that was ruled a lateral as it hit the turf, and Terrance Love scooped it up and took it 32 yards to the house to push the Hughes lead to 21-0 just over a minute into the period.

The Terrors got the ball and promptly went three-and-out, punting the ball back to the Panthers, who ripped off an 88-yard touchdown on their first play from scrimmage in the third quarter to take the remaining air out of the stadium.

Suddenly trailing by four touchdowns, Glynn Academy lost a fumble on its next snap, and after a short five-play scoring drive Langston Hughes had a 35-0 stranglehold on the game with 4:28 still left in the third quarter.

"We didn't prepare our kids to play this game," said Terrors head coach Rocky Hidalgo. "We stunk the joint up. That's on me as a head coach."

Slow starts to both halves hurt Glynn Academy's pursuit of a quarterfinal

Brunswick High falls to Lee County

The Pirates hung with the top-ranked team in Class 6A on their home field for a half Friday night.

But ultimately, Brunswick High succumb to injuries and penalty flags in a 48-21 loss to No. 1 Lee County in Leesburg.

The talented Trojans took a 14-0 lead through one quarter until the Pirates scraped back to score its own touchdown and cut its deficit in half going into the second half.

Lee pulled away in the third quarter with three straight scores to go up 34-7 in its pursuit of a fourth straight quarterfinal appearance. Brunswick struck paydirt again to open the fourth quarter and climb back to within 20 points, but it didn't have enough left in the tank to get any closer.

Along with quarterback KJ Lee, who left the game with a head injury in the third quarter, offensive linemen David Newbauer and safety Ivan Johnson were among the Pirates' starters to go down throughout the contest.

When combined with the multitude of flags on the night, Brunswick had a deep hole to try to climb out of.

"Injuries and a lot of flags, you can't overcome those to beat a team like Lee's — and then we're also at their place," said Pirates head coach Sean Pender.

Howling winds were also a factor working against Brunswick in the first and third quarters against Lee. Going against the wind, the Pirates struggled to pass or punt in two of the four periods.

Entering the contest, Pender knew his team's matchup against Lee County would be a measuring stick for the program four years into his tenure. The Pirates aren't championship contenders quite yet, but Pender is excited about the team's future.

"Take the score out of the equation; we can play with this team," Pender said. "That gives me a lot of confidence for us moving forward with our program, a lot of confidence."

"We're in a really good spot with our program."

Grillo shoots 63 at Mayakoba Classic

PLAYA DEL CARMEN, Mexico — Emiliano Grillo made birdie on half of the holes Friday on his way to an 8-under 63 that gave him a four-shot lead going into the weekend at the Mayakoba Golf Classic.

The second round was delayed by one hour by heavy rain in the morning, and it was not completed before it was too dark to continue. No one was close enough to catch Grillo, who was at 13-under 129. It will be only the fifth time in 136 starts on the PGA Tour that he has a share of the lead after any round.

Tony Finau one-putted six consecutive holes in the middle of his round, four of them par saves and none tap-ins, and posted a 66. He was at 9-under 133, along with Tom Hoge, who had a 67.

Justin Thomas, at No. 3 the highest-ranked player in the field, was zooming into contention with five birdies and an eagle through 12 holes. His momentum stalled, however, particularly with bogeys on his last two holes. Thomas had to settle for a 67 and was 10 shots behind.

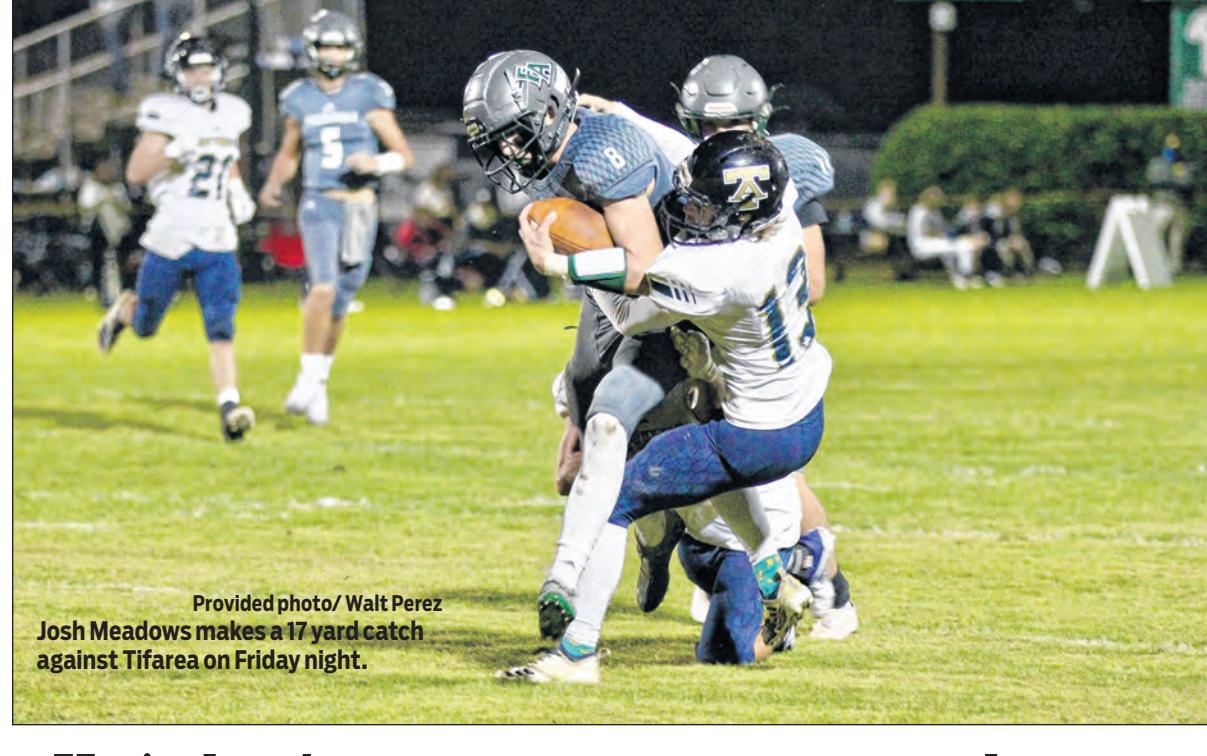

But he's still playing, which won't be the case for Rickie Fowler and Brooks Koepka.

Fowler was in position for an easy birdie on the par-5 13th hole when he sent
