No. 5 Richmond Hill rallies past Brunswick

THE BRUNSWICK NEWS

Brunswick High went toe-to-toe with No. 5 Richmond Hill in the first half of a showdown between the two undefeated teams in Region 2-6A.

However, led by linemen Shaquon Brooks and Nathan Vickers, the Wildcats' defense turned their opponents' miscues into points to stake itself to first in the region with a 42-27 win over the Pirates on Friday.

Brooks and Vickers, the reigning region DPOY, combined for 17 tackles and four sacks as Richmond Hill (7-1, 4-0) won its sixth game in a row and snapped a four-game win streak for Brunswick High (5-3, 3-1).

The Pirates struck first, scoring on a 2-yard run to take an early 7-0 lead with six minutes gone in the first quarter before the Wildcats responded with a 30-yard run to tie the game heading into the second quarter.

Both teams traded a pair of scores in the second period — Brunswick's second a touchdown pass from KJ Lee to Tyrease Jones to tie the game at 21 at the end of the first half.

Five minutes into the third, Richmond Hill linebacker Kalieb Jackson recovered a BHS fumble and took it to the end zone to give the Wildcats a 28-21 advantage, and the Wildcats went up two touchdowns three minutes later.

Brunswick answered with a score, another Lee touchdown pass, but missed the extra point for to keep the deficit at eight with just over nine minutes to play.

But the Pirates wouldn't get the game-tying score, eventually falling to the Wildcats.

Frederica Academy fell in its opening region game to Bulloch Academy 20-16 in the last few minutes of the game.

After the loss, the Knights' overall record is 4-3 and 0-1 in the region.

Frederica went into the half with a 6-0 lead after making a couple of field goals. Bulloch answered and went up 7-6 in the second half.

The Knights went back but once again couldn't find a way to punch it in the end zone, so they settled for another field goal to make it 9-7.

Bulloch came back down the field and had a big touchdown pass in the back corner to go up 13-9 with about six minutes left in the fourth quarter.

Frederica's offense marched down the field and scored, making it 16-13 with two minutes to go in the game. However, after a couple of costly penalties that helped the Gators get downfield, on 3rd and 9, Bulloch threw a pass that went Camden County's football team fell in its opening region game to Colquitt County 34-13 as the Wildcats lose their third straight game.

The Wildcats move to 4-4 overall and 0-1 in region play.

Colquitt and Camden kept it tight in the first half as the Packers led 10-0. The Wildcats' defense got an early stop, but then Colquitt's special team's unit blocked a Camden field goal, returning it to the Wildcats' 30-yard line.

With a short field, the Packers scored. After the blocked field goal, the Wildcats' struggled on special teams most of the night.

Coach Bob Spire said it was one of those games where they had chances early and kept it a competitive game at halftime.

"Well, we ran the ball better tonight than we have all year," Spire said. "We moved the ball better and more consistently — gave ourselves more chances, but we stalled out in the total offense with 287 on the ground and 160 through the air.

Glynn Academy's football team shut out Effingham County on Friday night 38-0 for the Terrors' homecoming game.

The win improves the Terrors to 5-3 overall and 3-1 in the Class 6A Region-2 standings, putting them in third place.

From the opening kickoff, Glynn Academy came out of the gate with nothing but ferociousness. The Terrors offense amassed 447 yards of undefeated on the season.

Even when the offense was on the field, it didn't take long for the Terrors to score. Glynn scored its first points through the air as T.J. Lewis threw to Caden Hutchinson for a 43-yard touchdown pass.

"We were winning 7-6 at the half, and we struggled on the line of scrimmage, we struggled to establish our running game," said McIntosh head coach Bradley Warren.

McIntosh County Academy (4-3, 3-1 Region 3-A Public) carried a one-point lead into halftime at the conclusion of a defensively dominant first half that saw the offenses combined to turn the ball over three times while gaining just 184 total yards.

Coming out of the locker room, Metter (7-0, 4-0) finally found some success running the ball out of its wing-T, more than exceeding its first-half offensive output on a 65-yard touchdown drive on the opening possession of the third
