Frederica Academy squanders late lead in loss to Valwood

In a game that featured two teams that have gone back and forth, Valwood took another turn on top, defeating Frederica Academy 32-21.

Playing in front of their home crowd for the first time all season, the Knights got on the board first when Sutton Ellis found Sean Mooney in the end zone. Mooney caught the ball over the Valiant's cornerback to put the team up 7-0.

After a first of many penalties called on Frederica in the game, Valwood received its first of many positive yards on a 4th-and-12 pass interference call. Able to retain possession of the ball, the Valiants needed four plays inside the red zone to score on a three-yard rush by Mills Moorman. Valwood proceeded to miss the extra point.

With both sides turning the ball over on downs, the teams were content to take the game into the locker room after Valwood was sacked on its final play of the half by Gavin Grantham.

Holding a 7-6 lead and receiving the ball to start the second half, Frederica scored on a six-play 66-yard drive with two consecutive big plays when Ellis found Blake Holloway for a 31-yard gain. This left the Valiants' defense on its toes, allowing Jordan Triplett to carry the ball, burst through the front seven, and past the secondary for a 29-yard score.

Valwood, hoping to have an answer, proceeded to turn the ball over for the third time of the night when Mooney laid a hit on Worth Kimbro to cause a fumble for Frederica to recover.

Frederica gave the ball right back to Valwood when a miscommunication between Triplett and Holloway, with Triplett tossing the ball to Holloway as he lost yardage.

Valwood made Frederica pay for its mistake when Triston White broke several tackles to burst into the secondary for a 34-yard rush to the 17 of Frederica. As Frederica looked gassed after the play, the Valiants'

Brooks Best found a receiver all alone on the sideline for an easy score. The team converted its 2-point attempt to tie the game at 14.

Being forced to punt on its next drive, Frederica got the ball back when Hayes Carter dropped back into coverage and jumped a route.

On the ensuing play from Valwood's 41, Ellis connected with a wide-open Kwon Vaughn for an easy score. With the sidelines erupting and head coach Brandon Derrick telling his coordinators what a great call it was, the Knights led 21-14 midway through the third.

From then on, it was all Valwood.

CFP to expand to 12 by 2026

By RALPH D. RUSSO
Associated Press

The university presidents who oversee the College Football Playoff voted Friday to expand the postseason model for determining a national champion from four to 12 teams no later than the 2026 season.

A person familiar with the decision told The Associated Press that the presidents would like to have the new format in place as soon as the 2024 season. The person spoke on condition of anonymity because an official announcement had not been made.

A process that started 14 1/2 months ago with an optimistic rollout of an ambitious plan, and then was derailed as conference leaders haggled over details and questioned each other's motivations, is now finally moving forward.

The presidents approved the original 12-team proposal that called for the six highest-ranked conference champions and six at-large picks, as determined by a selection committee, to make the playoff. The top four seeds would be conference champions and receive byes into the second round.

First-round games would be played on campus and the rest at bowl sites.

There are still issues to be hammered out by conference commissioners who comprise the CFP management committee, which is scheduled to meet next week. Most revenue sharing and whether the logistical hurdles can be cleared in time for a new playoff to be up and running by 2024.

Falcons place LB Deion Jones, 4 others, on IR to open season

ASSOCIATED PRESS

FLOWERY BRANCH — Atlanta Falcons linebacker Deion Jones, who missed most of the preseason while recovering from offseason right shoulder surgery, will open the season on injured reserve.

The Falcons on Thursday also placed former starting offensive guard Jalen Mayfield, cornerback Isaiah Oliver, defensive lineman Marlon Davidson and rookie tight end John FitzPatrick on injured reserve. Each player will be eligible to return after missing four games.

Mayfield was expected to open the season behind starter Elijah Wilkinson at left guard.

The Falcons signed defensive lineman Abdullah Anderson, offensive lineman Colby Gossett and inside linebacker Nick Kwiatkowski to the active roster.

The team also re-signed defensive backs Mike Ford and Dean Marlowe, who were cut Wednesday when Atlanta claimed defensive lineman Matt Dickerson from the Kansas City Chiefs and offensive lineman Chuma Edoga from the New York Jets.

Jones' status had remained uncertain even after he came off the physically unable to perform list to play the final preseason game against Jacksonville. Jones was a 2017 Pro Bowl selection.

Rashaan Evans and Mykal Walker are expected to start at inside linebacker when the Falcons open their season against New Orleans on Sept. 11.

Mayfield missed practice with a lower back injury. Davidson had knee surgery on Aug. 18 while Oliver is still recovering from knee surgery which ended his 2021 season. FitzPatrick missed the final preseason game with an undisclosed injury.

Pinning the Knights to their one-yard line after a booming punt, the Valiants picked up a safety when they pummeled their way through the Knights' offensive line and brought down Triplett just inside the end zone.

Frederica's lead dwindled to 21-16.

Following both teams punting, Valwood started its drive in the short field after an error on a punt by Frederica. Only needing 35 yards to score, Valwood used its bell cow in White to pick up the 35-yards and some after penalties were called on the team. Down to a 4th and goal from the one-yard line, Valwood rewarded White with his first of two touchdowns in the fourth quarter.

Valwood gained its first lead of the game, leading 24-21 with 6:22 to go in the game.

On the first play of the drive for Frederica, Ellis scrambled his way through the defense, and enough for a first down. However, during the play, the far side judge by Valwood's sideline blew his whistle and threw a flag. Trying to rule the ball dead, the ref told his crew that Eli Brickman's blocks on the play weren't typical blocks as the Knights wideout and his counterpart got handsy.

Frustrated with the calls not only in the game but in all three games of the season, Coach Derrick spent a few minutes talking to the refs about his displeasure with the way the game was being called. As the refs spent a few moments together to discuss what the ruling would be, Coach Derrick brought his team together with 6:11 to go and delivered a message to his team, hoping to break them out of their slump.

The refs ruled that Brickman's block was unwarranted and gave an unsportsmanlike penalty after going back and forth to each sideline and hearing the arguments. On the next play

Young on the opening drive.

The Wildcats drove down the field to the six yard line, where Willie Butler made a touchdown saving tackle for Glynn to force Camden to take a 23-yard field goal and a 3-0 lead.

A Terrors' miscue on a fake punt the following drive gave the Wildcats the ball late in the first quarter, but Camden was unable to take advantage of the mistake.

After forcing Glynn to punt on the next possession, Camden started a drive on its 41-yard line, methodically driving down the field on a series of runs, capped with a 15-yard touchdown run by Brayden Ritz.

Greg Peacock took a long kickoff return to midfield for the Terrors to start a drive that ended with a picksix by Tyre Young to give the Wildcats a 17-0 lead with less than 40 seconds remaining in the first half.

The teams traded possessions to open the second half before Camden scored late in the third quarter on a 25-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Mason Robinson to Saige Roche to give the Wildcats a 23-0 lead after a missed extra point.

Camden receiver Jake Lindsey returned a punt on the opening drive of the fourth quarter 50 yards to give the Wildcats great field position. Three plays later, Jaden Dailey scored on a three-yard run to increase the lead to 30-0.

The lead was increased to 37-0 after a nine-yard run by Dailey with less than five minutes to play.

The lone Terrors' score came on a 76-yard run by Noonan with little time remaining.

After the game, Terrors' coach Rocky Hidalgo told his players he wasn't going to "crucify" players for the team's disappointing performance.

"If you practice poorly, you'll play poorly," he told his players.

He told his players not to blame teammates or play calling for the loss. He said the team is not designed to throw the football 50 times a game and be successful.

"Everybody contributed to this loss," he said. "We have to play better. We have to practice better."

Camden coach Jeff Herron said he was surprised at the way his players dominated the game. He attributed the win to the team's reaction to last week's disappointing loss to Brunswick High.

"Last week was a turning point for our team," he said. "It wasn't perfect but they sure have matured a lot in the last three weeks."

Seeing his team down, Coach Derrick delivered a message to his team and told them they had two options, to hang their heads or to come back on Labor Day and work to fix their mistakes and get ready for Calvary Day.

"We have a really tough schedule and some really good teams these next four/five games," Derrick said after the loss. "We are going to have some trying times and the brotherhood is really tight in there. They have to battle for one another and fight for another and do some things. It's going to be a challenge for us the next couple of weeks and get everybody ready and good to go."

"We have to go back to work as coaches and the kids have to go back to work. We will try to prepare to the best we can to try and beat calvary day and play John Milledge and the plan is to put us in the best situation we can. Hopefully, we can execute, get some big plays, and pull off some upsets down the road."

Falcons place LB Deion Jones, 4 others, on IR to open season

ASSOCIATED PRESS

FLOWERY BRANCH — Atlanta Falcons linebacker Deion Jones, who missed most of the preseason while recovering from offseason right shoulder surgery, will open the season on injured reserve.

The Falcons on Thursday also placed former starting offensive guard Jalen Mayfield, cornerback Isaiah Oliver, defensive lineman Marlon Davidson and rookie tight end John FitzPatrick on injured reserve. Each player will be eligible to return after missing four games.

Mayfield was expected to open the season behind starter Elijah Wilkinson at left guard.

The Falcons signed defensive lineman Abdullah Anderson, offensive lineman Colby Gossett and inside linebacker Nick Kwiatkowski to the active roster.

The team also re-signed defensive backs Mike Ford and Dean Marlowe, who were cut Wednesday when Atlanta claimed defensive lineman Matt Dickerson from the Kansas City Chiefs and offensive lineman Chuma Edoga from the New York Jets.

Jones' status had remained uncertain even after he came off the physically unable to perform list to play the final preseason game against Jacksonville. Jones was a 2017 Pro Bowl selection.

Rashaan Evans and Mykal Walker are expected to start at inside linebacker when the Falcons open their season against New Orleans on Sept. 11.

Mayfield missed practice with a lower back injury. Davidson had knee surgery on Aug. 18 while Oliver is still recovering from knee surgery which ended his 2021 season. FitzPatrick missed the final preseason game with an undisclosed injury.

Pinning the Knights to their one-yard line after a booming punt, the Valiants picked up a safety when they pummeled their way through the Knights' offensive line and brought down Triplett just inside the end zone.

Frederica's lead dwindled to 21-16.

Following both teams punting, Valwood started its drive in the short field after an error on a punt by Frederica. Only needing 35 yards to score, Valwood used its bell cow in White to pick up the 35-yards and some after penalties were called on the team. Down to a 4th and goal from the one-yard line, Valwood rewarded White with his first of two touchdowns in the fourth quarter.

Valwood gained its first lead of the game, leading 24-21 with 6:22 to go in the game.
