

FREDERICA ACADEMY LOWER SCHOOL UNIFORM POLICY + DRESS CODE UPDATES

One of the many great things about Frederica Academy is our school pride, which cultivates a feeling of community and shared values.

The upcoming school year brings the start of a few updates to our current dress code. To help you plan and prepare for the 2019-2020 and 2020-2021 school years, please note the dress code expectations outlined below. Students can continue to wear the 2018-2019 uniform color selections until August 2020; however, only the new uniform colors are now available from Lands' End.

- Lands' End is our uniform provider.
- All shirts, dresses, jumpers, sweaters, and fleece jackets must have the Frederica Academy Lower School monogram embroidered on them.
- Shirts must be tucked inside shorts, pants, and skirts.
- T-Shirts should not be seen or have sleeves longer than the top uniform shirt.
- Shorts must be no shorter than four inches above the knee.
- Athletic shoes are required on P.E. days.
- Closed toe shoes with rubber soles are preferred.
- Sandals must have a heel strap.
- Avoid platform shoes, clogs, shoes with wheels, cleats, and flip-flops.
- FA sweatshirts are reserved for dress-down or spirit wear days.
- There is no uniform requirement for outerwear worn outdoors.
- Fleece jackets and vests worn indoors must have the FA Lower School monogram.
- Help us identify lost items by adding names to all outerwear.
