

Journey of a Pioneer

Main Events
and Details

Rawson

Olivia and her family prepare and head out on the Oregon Trail.
(March–April 1845)

Pa tells Olivia they are moving west.

Olivia and her family say goodbye to their friends.

Olivia and her family reach the "jumping off point."

Olivia and her family face challenges on the trail.

Olivia and her family cross a river.

Olivia and her family reach the mountains.

Olivia has to say goodbye to her friend Lizzie.

Journey of a Pioneer

Olivia and her family arrive in Oregon Territory.
(September 1845)

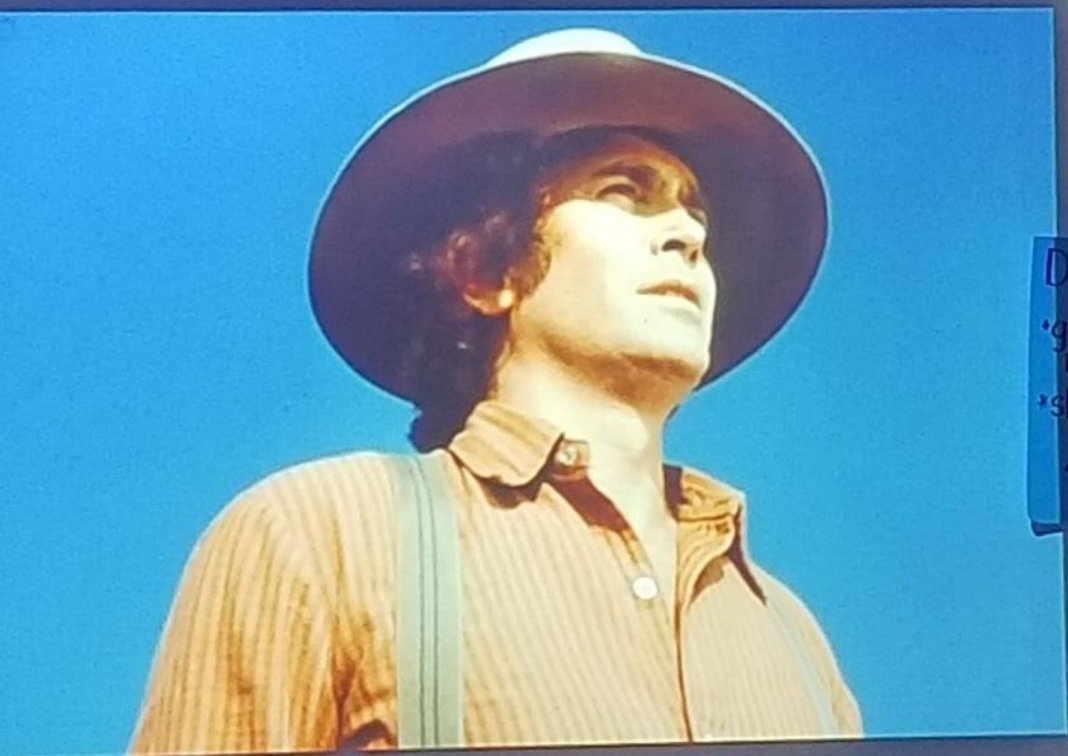

Olivia and her family pick a plot of land for their home.

Olivia and her family celebrate!

WELCOME!

Did you *go to the *restroom
*sharpen
2 pens

WELCOME!

GRADE TWO

LS - 5
SECOND GRADE
CAROL ALBRIGHT
LA

Some Plains Indians were farmers.

Plains Indians rode horses.

Plains Indians believed in spirits.

Plains Indians used a travois to carry things.

Plains Indians were forced to live on reservations.

The chief is the leader of a tribe.

Plains Indians grew corn, beans, and squash.

The Indians fought for their land.

Plains Indians used all parts of the bison.

Plains Indians lived on the plains.

Hunting bison was a way of life.

Tipis were made of bison skins.

Plains Indians burned land to make it healthy.

Plains Indians made things from bison.

Settlers took land from the Indians.

Some Plains Indians were nomadic.

Plains Indians lived in peace with buffaloes.

Plains women carried babies in a cradleboard.

Plains Indians were clever hunters.

n reserva

The chief is the leader of a tribe.

Kate

Plains

Joe

Plains Indians used all parts of the buffalo.

Plains

way of life

Tipis were made of bison skins.

Palmer

Plains Indian

Kendall

from bison.

Settlers took land from the Indians.

Sabella

Some Pl

with buffaloes

Plains women were making

Pl

GRADE TWO

Some Plains Indians were farmers.

Plains Indians rode horses.

Plains Indians believed in spirits.

Plains Indians used travois to carry things.

Plains Indians were forced to live on reservations.

The chief is the leader of a tribe.

Plains Indians grew corn, beans, and squash.

The Indians fought for their land.

Plains Indians used all parts of the bison.

Plains Indians lived on the plains.

Hunting bison was a way of life.

Tipis were made of bison skins.

Plains Indians burned land to make it healthy.

Plains Indians made things from bison.

Settlers took land from the Indians.

Some Plains Indians were nomads.

Plains Indians lived in peace with buffaloes.

Plains women carried babies in a cradleboard.

Plains Indians were clever hunters.

