PASTOR NIEMEIER'S NOTE:

My dear Brothers and Sisters at Messiah,

During this season of Advent, we yet once more find ourselves in a period of waiting and expectation. The days are shortening, the night is lengthening. The Winter Solstice, the Shortest Day, will soon arrive, when we will only have 9 hours and 42 minutes of daylight here in Setauket. And it's on darkening days like this that my inner woodchuck desires to curl up and crawl into a burrow and sleep until the light and warmth comes again.

I often think about hibernating creatures during the time of Advent. When the warmth begins going out of the world, their rhythms begin to change. They put on fat, their metabolisms slow, they find burrows, they enter states of torpor. Some of them shut their bodies down to states of near-death. And they wait for warmer times, when the sun climbs higher in the sky and stays there longer, when the snow recedes and the earth becomes lush and green again and the dead trees blossom into new life. Then they, too, awaken and emerge from their sleeping places to play in the sunlight.

Often, the physical world reflects metaphysical realities. The lengthening of the darkness at this time of year in the northern hemisphere reminds us of the time when God's people awaited the coming of his Messiah, when, as Isaiah says, the people walked in darkness. They waited for his coming with longing, hoping and praying that the light would come, and it did when Christ came into the world. For “[the] people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who dwelt in a land of deep darkness, on them has light shone” (Isaiah 9:2). As John reminds us, “In him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it” (John 1:4-5). Now we find ourselves waiting again for the light to return, though our world is not dark like theirs was, for Christ is with us even now. We have seen the light and know the light and the light has not left us. But we still await Christ's second and final coming by remembering his first and the waiting that preceded it. Like those creatures that hibernate, we wait in simulated darkness during Advent for the light of Christ to arrive at Christmas, just as the world waits for the darkness and cold of winter to give way to the warmth and light of spring.

Soon the day will break, and the shadows will flee away!

In His grip,
Pastor Nils Niemeier

TRUSTEES RECEIVE A HELPING HAND

Have you found it easier to park lately? If you have, it's probably because the spaces in the parking lot have been restriped. The last time the parking spaces were lined was in 2015 and since then the lines had virtually disappeared, making it a little difficult to park properly. The Trustees were planning to reline the parking lot spaces, when we were approached by Craig Biazzo, a member of Boy Scout Troop 215, working to achieve the rank of Life Scout. In order for him to become a Life Scout, among other requirements, he had to direct a service project. He asked if we would allow him to restripe the parking lot and submit this task as his service project. After Craig received approval from his troop leader, we met again with him and his father to review the specifics of the project.

The work was done on November 5th. The Trustees provided the striping machine, the paint was donated by a family of the congregation and the Boy Scouts provided the labor. There was no cost to Messiah.

Thank you to Craig and his troop members for a job well done.

Living away from home can be a lonely experience. Please allow us the opportunity to reach out to your student/service member with words of encouragement, spiritual resources, and care packages. We can even help to find local churches in their community, so that they can continue in fellowship with other believers and maintain a strong foundation in the Christian faith.

Please contact the church office for details.

Sunday School is offered between services at 9:45 for both Adults and Children.

We are looking for Sunday School teachers and substitutes. It's a wonderful opportunity to help our children learn about our faith. If interested, please speak with
