A MESSAGE FROM OUR CHURCH COUNCIL PRESIDENT:

Grace, mercy, and peace be to you from our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

As we go through our Lenten season, we have so many opportunities. Opportunities for reflection, for observance, for repentance. While many look at Lent as a time to give something up, sometimes we miss the greater purpose. We have such a beautiful opportunity to spend the days leading up to Easter, growing closer to Jesus and to attempt to understand how great his sacrifice really was. To understand how much it means for us, as sinners.

If you've given something up this year, to try to understand the meaning of sacrifice, I also challenge you to pick something up: your Bible. Take the opportunities to read some of the stories. Read about the challenges that our Lord and his disciples had to endure, just to get us all to the point of salvation. While WE sacrifice small things, the vast majority of THEM sacrificed everything to ensure that God's word continued to spread, so that ALL can be saved. This Easter, I challenge you to follow in their footsteps, even a little bit.

Come to the Lord's table. Bring those that you love with you. Remember that Jesus loves you and so do we.

Liann Dennis

And the Messiah Evangelical Lutheran Council
