

Free Consultations with Certified Financial Planners

Delivered virtually over zoom

Wednesday, July 7, 2021

FINANCIAL PLANNING ASSOCIATION

CENTRAL OHIO

In today's uncertain economy, planning for your financial future is more important than ever. If you have financial questions or concerns, or would like to learn how to manage your finances better, a Financial Planning appointment will give you an opportunity to receive free, personalized, confidential answers from professional financial planners.

Highly qualified CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professionals will meet with you one-on-one via zoom to offer free personalized advice on a variety of financial topics, including – getting out of debt, retirement planning, investment strategies, tax issues, insurance, and estate planning, among many others.

There are no strings attached! All financial planners are participating as volunteers and they will not be selling products or services, or giving out business cards.
