

Lenore Reiner, CFP

Responsible Investment Strategy Specialist

Lenore Reiner is a vice president of Eaton Vance Distributors and responsible investment strategy specialist for Eaton Vance's suite of strategies focused on responsible investing, encompassing actively and passively managed U.S. and international equity strategies, fixed-income strategies and asset allocation funds. She is responsible for client and internal communications and insights on investment strategy and portfolio positioning. She joined Eaton Vance in 2017.

Lenore began her career in the investment management industry in 2004. Before joining Eaton Vance, she was director of national sales and marketing at Motley Fool Asset Management. Previously, she was a regional vice president with Calvert Investments and was affiliated with Investors Group Financial Services Inc. in Canada as a financial advisor.

Lenore earned a BES Honours, summa cum laude, from York University. She holds the CFP designation and FINRA Series 6,7,63 and 24 licenses.

HEXVEST

Janice L. Musselwhite
Senior Vice President
GAMCO Asset Management

Janice L. Musselwhite is a Senior Vice President at GAMCO Asset Management responsible for client relationship management for institutional, sub advisory and private wealth management clients. She is a Product Specialist for the AXA Equitable portfolios and the 1290 GAMCO Small/Mid Cap Value Fund and has focused on the relationship since she joined the firm in 2004. Janice is also a member of the Socially Responsive and ESG Investments team and works closely with the firm's SRI and ESG clients. Ms. Musselwhite holds an MBA from Columbia University Graduate School of Business. She was awarded a Bachelor of Arts with distinction in Economics from Duke University.