Our program this fall will be led by Rev. Wendy Schindler-Chasney, a daughter of the Heartland Conference. She is the local church pastor for St. John's UCC in Milan, OH, a post she has held for 28+ years. Her undergraduate work is in art and design and she finds ways to intertwine art and theology in her ministry. Her husband, Wayne, is the pastor of Monroeville, UCC. They reside in rural Milan with their two children.

Weekend Activities

In addition to the program, there will be time to explore Templated Hills Camp, meet with Jill Frey, Outdoor Ministries Exec. Director, shop with the Market Path Fair Trade Store, get crafty doing art projects, and have lots of fun, fellowship, and great food!

Program

The Wisdom of Martha and Mary. Together we will look at the discipleship faith and story of these two beloved sisters. Their story reflects our own story and experience as women. We are offered insight through them into our own spiritual paths.

We will connect with their story through Christian Wisdom, Tradition, and art history to learn more about our own journey.
