

Seminar & Professional Day

Sponsored by Northwest Ohio Association and NWOA Lay School Board of the Heartland Conference, United Church of Christ

For Lay Persons and Church Professionals

“Islam within the Abrahamic Tradition”

When: Monday, October 19, 2020 – Online

9:00 a.m. Waiting Room to Join Meeting

9:30 a.m. – Noon -- Presentation (with breaks)

Online Registration Available at www.nwoa.org

Register by October 15, 2020

Registrants will receive a Zoom link closer to the date.

Free. There are no registration fees.

PRESENTATION BY OVAMIR ANJUM

Ovamir Anjum is Imam Khattab Endowed Chair of Islamic Studies at the Department of Philosophy and Religious Studies, University of Toledo. He will be discussing the key notions of commonality and difference in the Abrahamic traditions, the political context of relationships between Christianity and Islam, and the ever changing evolution of attitudes over time.

