LANDSCAPE BUZZ

A BI-MONTHLY UPDATE FROM MYATT LANDSCAPING & CONSTRUCTION

JANUARY/FEBRUARY 2023 VOLUME 7

Wendell Falls EDITION

FEATURED PLANT:
DUKE GARDENS
JAPANESE PLUM YEW

The cultivar 'Duke Gardens' was discovered at Duke Gardens in Durham, North Carolina and is noted for its compactness. Ideal for the southeastern United States, as it tolerates both the summer heat and humidity unlike other yews, 'Duke Gardens' has a dense spreading mounding habit.
This plant prefers moist, well-drained soil but tolerates dry, sandy, or clay soil. Plant it in full sun if you have cool summers; otherwise, it needs partial shade and tolerates shade better than most other needled evergreens.
Once established this plant is drought tolerant and deer resistant. 'Duke Gardens' grows slowly to 2 to 4 feet tall and wide.

COMPLETED TASKS

- Fescue fertilization
- Leaf removal
- Annual bed maintenance
- Tree and shrub pruning as needed
- Spot spray turf weeds

UPCOMING TASKS

- Pine straw and mulch applications
- Winter pruning
- February pre-emergent on turf
- Tulip bulb installation
- Pruning ornamental grasses and trees
- Spot spray turf weeds
- Leaf removal

Please note: the townhomes and villas will have 1 visit per month in January/February.

Happy New Year!

Follow us on Facebook and Instagram!
MyattLandscaping