Who is Ralph?

How our logo and statues came to be known as Ralph

The spirit of "Ralph" invites us all to live a full, joyful life, willing to try new things and take on life's challenges. The Inspiration for our logo figure and statues was a loveable boy who had a disability few people understood in 1923. Most people believed Ralph should be placed in an institution.

Unlike the rest of the world, Alvina Hammer believed Ralph deserved to live in a loving environment, a home setting focused on his abilities. Ralph lived a full and joyful life at Hammer until he passed away in 1995.

Ralph embodies the spirit of Hammer, a community of people who respect the individual's abilities, whose collective spirit makes dreams come true and whose innovations continue to lead the way for people with disabilities.

Northeast Residence, NER was acquired by Hammer during the Covid pandemic. This year Hammer is celebrating 100 years and NER is celebrating 50 years.

Hammer & NER
