Saturday, February 8 at 1:00 p.m.

Community Drum Circle

Drumming is a fun way to strengthen concentration, heighten clarity and sharpen listening, memory, and social skills, while relieving tension and building stamina.

Spiritually, drumming is a catalyst for personal power and creative expression; it also helps promote cultural awareness and community bonding. At our drum circle, we are welcoming people of all ages, all backgrounds, and all skill levels to come rhythmically express themselves. Each individual expression contributes to the group as a whole, resulting in a powerful, harmonious communal event. You don't have to be a musician to make music, and you'll be the entertainment, instead of just being entertained. Be sure to join us in the Budarz Theater for an empowering, communal, and fun afternoon.

In the Budarz Theater

Monday, February 10 at 4:00 p.m.
