

Douglas County 4-H

Meat Quality Assurance Training

What: Douglas County 4-H MQA Training

Who: ALL 4-H Members enrolled in an animal project MUST have a current MQA Training Certificate. (excluding Horse, Llama/Alpaca, Dog and Cat Projects)

- 4-H Members are required to attend MQA twice during the course of their 4-H Career
 - First year/junior member in an animal project
 - First year as a senior in an animal project

When: April 30th from 5:00-7:00 p.m. & May 1st from 3:00-6:00 pm

- Open house style! Plan to arrive at least an hour before the ending time.

Where: Douglas County Fairgrounds Kirk Hall

For further information, please visit the Please register here
Douglas County 4-H Policies for Success.

DC 4-H Members are highly encouraged to take MQA in county, if that is not possible, please reach out to Mercedes for the most up-to-date MQA training schedule. If you are out-of-county, there will be a $5.00 charge.

Please reach out to Mercedes Glenn at mercedes.glenn@colostate.edu for further questions.

DOUGLAS COUNTY
COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY
EXTENSION