Biography

Charlotte Burnett

Banker

Charlotte (Charlie) is a Banker and relationship manager in J.P. Morgan's Private Bank, where she works on a team that delivers customized wealth management solutions to ultra high net worth families, endowments, and foundations encompassing the full spectrum of the firm's investment, banking, fiduciary, credit, estate planning, and philanthropic capabilities.

Prior to joining J.P. Morgan, Charlie served four years in the U.S. Army Special Operations Command as a Human Resources Officer. In this role, she focused on managing human capital and managing all human resources operations for an organization that continually deployed hundreds of soldiers across ten countries in the Pacific region.

A native of Raleigh, North Carolina, Charlie received her M.B.A from University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Kenan-Flagler Business School and B.A. in Political Science from Wake Forest University. During Charlie's time at Kenan-Flagler she served as the President of Carolina Women in Business. Charlie was also a Kenan Scholar and Pat Tillman Scholar. Charlie volunteers with MindsMatter and Kings County Tennis League in New York City.

Charlie and her husband developed and own a 90,000 square foot self-storage facility managed by Extra Space Storage in Raleigh, North Carolina that opened in June 2021. Charlie lives in New York City with her husband.

J.P.Morgan