Benjamin Alexander is an accomplished professional with a strong educational background and extensive experience in the field of finance. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Finance from the State University of New York at Potsdam, which he obtained between August 2006 and June 2010.

Throughout his career, Benjamin has excelled in various roles, demonstrating his expertise and commitment to the finance industry. Currently, he serves as the Vice President and Commercial Loan Officer at Pursuit in Syracuse, NY, a position he has held since October 2017. In this role, Benjamin provides valuable financial solutions and guidance to commercial clients, leveraging his in-depth knowledge of the industry.

Prior to his current position, Benjamin gained valuable experience as a Business Banking Underwriter II at NBT Bank N.A. in Norwich, NY, where he worked from August 2011 to September 2017. During his tenure, he showcased his strong analytical skills and underwriting expertise, contributing to the bank's success in assessing and managing credit risk.

In addition to his formal education and professional experience, Benjamin has actively pursued continuous learning and development. He has completed various training programs, including RMA's Analyzing Business Tax Returns & Analyzing Personal Financial Statements and Personal Tax Returns, NYBA's Making the Commercial Credit Decision, RMA's Structuring Commercial Loans II, RMA's Detecting Problem Loans, and RMA's Real Estate Lending Academy. He has also facilitated Business Banking training for NBT's Manchester, NH, Syracuse, and Albany markets, further showcasing his dedication to the growth and success of his colleagues.

Benjamin's educational background in finance, coupled with his training and proficiency in financial institution information systems such as Fiserv, Moody's, and MS Office, has equipped him with a comprehensive skill set to excel in his professional endeavors. With his strong analytical abilities, deep understanding of financial statements, and expertise in risk management, he is well-equipped to provide sound financial advice and make informed business decisions.