

March 2-6: is Read Across America Week! We'll have Dr. Seuss storytime each day this week at 11:30am & 3:30pm and special crafts in the Artist Studio!

March 9th: It's National Meatball Day! Join us for a reading of "Cloudy with a Chance of Meatballs" at 11:30am & 3:30pm in Bear Camp Bayou!

March 14th: Let's get crafty! It's National Children's Craft Day and International Pi Day! Join us in the Artist Studio to hear a story about Pi and make a craft at 3:30pm!

March 16th: It's National Panda Day! Stop by the Artist Studio any time today to make a panda mask!

March 17th: Happy St. Patrick's Day! Wear your green and join us at the Gathering Place Deck at 2pm for a special performance by the dancers from the Macrossan School of Irish Dance!

March 20th: "Come on, get happy" It's the International Day of Happiness! Spend the day with us and stop by the Artist Studio to make your own happy flower and spread a smile!

March 22nd: It's Women's History Month! We'll have a special storytime in the History Hotel at 11:30am & 3:30pm!

March 27th: It's National Scribble Day! We're reading "Not Just a Scribble" in the Artist Studio at 3:30pm and making a special scribble project!

In our Artist Studio all Month

March 2nd "Seussational Art": We're all about Seuss in the Artist Studio this week! We'll be making Truffula Trees, One Fish Two Fish Origami, and Seuss Bookmarks!

March 9th "Caterpillar Craft": Design a leaf for your caterpillar friend based on Eric Carle's art in The Very Hungry Caterpillar!

March 16th "Dots, Dots, and more Dots!": We're making mixed media dot art this week inspired by The Dot by Peter H. Reynolds.

March 23rd "Blossom Lanterns": Using paint, straws, and cotton swabs we will create beautiful cherry blossom branches on paper lanterns to celebrate Spring!

March 30th "Easter Egg Resist": Paint an Easter Egg using stickers as a resist! When you peel the stickers away it will reveal a perfect pastel masterpiece!

