Featured Speaker:

Ruoxia Li

Ruoxia Li was born and grew up in Shouyangm the location of another past Brethren mission post in Shanxi Province, China. She conducted research about the brethren missionary history in her hometown Shouyang during her undergraduate study. She met her husband, Eric Miller, in Beijing and moved to the United States in 2005, where she earned her masters degree in theology and development from Wartburg Theological Seminary. She was President of Dream Corps International and volunteered in nursing homes and hospice care. She and Eric moved back to China in 2012. She founded You' ai Care, a managed hospice and home-based care service in partnership with You'ai Hospital, which took its name from the original hospital founded in 1911 by Church of the Brethren missionaries in Pingding, which in turn shared its name with the Church of the Brethren in China, Yu'ai Hui. Ruoxia and Eric returned to the United States in 2021 to serve as Co-Executive Directors of Global Mission for the Church of the Brethren. Rouxia resigned for health reasons in 2022. She is a member of York First Church of the Brethren.
