

THE BOOK CORNER

“Check out” these books that are new to The First Church Library! Directions for borrowing a book are self-explanatory and can be found on the counter to the right, inside the library door. We kindly ask that you take a maximum of two (2) books at one time and return at least one (1) before selecting a new one. Please sign and leave the white card and return the books to the multilevel shelf labeled “Book Return”.

Children’s Section

First Bible Words

Board book for toddlers to be enjoyed in the library.

Fall/Halloween titles

What is Fall? by Genie Espinosa

Ten Little Jack-O-Lanterns by Robert Dunn

Teeny Tiny Ghost by Rachel Matson

Llama Llama Trick or Treat by Anna Dewdney

Sophie’s Halloween Disguise by Rosemary Wells

There Was an Old Lady Who Swallowed a Ghost by Lucille Colandro

Juvenile Nonfiction

My Little Book of Baby Animals by Camilla de la Bedoyere

Nibbles the Dinosaur Guide by Emma Yarlet

Adult Section

3:16 The Numbers of Hope by Max Lucado

Lucado discloses the truths he finds in the twenty-six words of scripture we all know as John 3:16. As he dissects the passage phrase by phrase, Max assures all believers of God's Great Love for us and offers hope and the promise of eternal life.

Always Looking Up by Michael J. Fox

Beloved actor Michael J. Fox writes about the challenges he has faced since being diagnosed with Parkinson's Disease. He elaborates about how he has tried to live his life fully with PD, embracing the changes with optimism and drawing his strength from work, faith and family.

It's Never Too Late by Kathie Lee Gifford

Gifford shares stories of leaving her successful career in television to discover and follow the dreams that she feels God has placed on her heart for her life in future years. Kathie Lee wants all to know we can pray and pursue the plans He has for us, too, because...it's never too late!

Anna's Crossing by Suzanne Woods Fisher

This historical fiction novel describes life for Early Amish believers who crossed the Atlantic Ocean from Rotterdam in 1737 to start a new life in America.

Redeemed by Mercy by Elizabeth Penney

*Latest chapter book (#15) in the series "Miracles & Mysteries of Mercy Hospital"