Meet Dava Cruise Hill Hensley

Dava Cruise Hill Hensley was born in North Carolina where she was raised in the Eden Church of the Brethren. She has recently retired after pastoring for 18 eighteen years at the First Church of the Brethren-Roanoke. She has three brothers, three sisters-in-love, numerous nephews, and one niece. Dava has been married and widowed twice. She is Mom to Josh and Nana to five. "Topaz", her cat, was adopted during the covid pandemic.

Dava is well educated and most recently earned her Doctor of Ministry; focused on grief and loss in the church. Grief and loss are something many of us are experiencing during this period of change in the churches. It was helpful incorporating this process of working through grief and moving forward with how God was directing the First Church of the Brethren-Roanoke.

Dava is the moderator for the 2025 Annual Conference. Her leadership experience includes moderator-elect, moderator for Virlina District, presenter at the Young Adult Conference, and Annual Conference. Dava is humbled by her call to service and looks forward to meeting and visiting with the Church of the Brethren family and friends.

One of Dava's passions includes working with other churches in Roanoke, known as the Northwest Faith Partnership. Along with worship and fellowship they partner with the members of the community, using faith to address key issues of health, safety, and justice.

When not supporting churches and the community, Dava can be found listening to hymns such as Deep and Wide, going for walks, reading poetry, watching movies, traveling, and cheering for her beloved UNC Tarheels.
