BIOS OF BANDS ON REVERSE SIDE

2024

ELDERLY BROTHERS BAND

Four talented senior musicians perform music from the '50s and '60s. Medfield resident Jerry Kazanjian on bass, guitarist John Toresco, drummer Larry Michetti, and keyboardist Mitch Golumb bring back the rock and roll legends and pop music stars of the two decades of music that shaped American music style. Having performed for senior centers and assisted living homes in the MetroWest area to rave reviews they will now share their music with all the generations of Medfield, young and old alike.

TICKLEJUICE

With their debut album Roots to the Stars in 2014, improvisation meets liquid jazz, Bulgarian reggae, and Michael Jackson at a rock concert, shaken (not stirred) with your local orchestra and resident street musicians. These parched and passionate improvisers meet the music of Roslindale native, James Merenda, exploring beyond where dreams take you.

MEDFIELD HIGH SCHOOL AND BLAKE MIDDLE SCHOOL JAZZ ENSEMBLES AND JAZZ CHOIRS

The Medfield High School Blake Middle School Jazz Jazz Ensembles & Jazz Choirs continue to impress jazz festival adjudicators across the state of Massachusetts. The high school ensembles have recently performed at the MAJE Gold Medal Showcase at Boston's Esplanade. These outstanding student groups perform a variety of music from the swing era through more modern day jazz.

THE STACEY PEASLEY BAND

One of Metrowest's favorite family acts. Their catchy original music has garnered awards from the Parents' Choice Foundation, NAPPA, and Creative Child Magazine, as well as airplay on Sirius XM's Kids' Place Live and children's radio programs across the country. Adults and children alike will sing and dance to their favorite Stacey Peasley songs.

A CELTIC BAND

A Celtic Band, combines Irish, Scottish, and Canadian Maritime Celtic influences with American heartland roots and acoustic pop/rock. Their original music includes traditionally inspired Celtic melodies and modern narratives, with an emphasis on lively, upbeat rhythms. Their arrangements reflect a modern sensibility and balance of tradition and innovation. They keep every show lively, fun, and moving!
