EXPOSITORY READING AND WRITING COURSE

Sacramento County Office of Education

FREE 4-DAY IN-PERSON WORKSHOP
For Middle School (6th-8th) and High School ELA & ELD Teachers - 2 Options for Fall 2026

Join this ERWC workshop to learn about ERWC modules and pedagogy, collaborate with peers, and prepare to teach ERWC modules.

ERWC 3.0 Includes:

- Modules to meet an A-G approved 11th & 12th grade English course
- Modules with integrated and designated ELD for grades 6-12
- Concept and portfolio mini-modules
- Full-length book, drama, and issue modules

ERWC Supports Students to:

- Develop strategies, abilities, and habits of mind of fluent readers and writers through rhetorical analysis of compelling texts.
- Build deep conceptual understandings that transform how students read, write, listen, speak, and think.
- Transfer literacy skills to new situations and increase student agency.
- Acquire academic literacy skills necessary for success in college and the world of work.

Be among the first teachers in the state to gain access to the middle school modules. These modules are built to support ELA with both Integrated ELD and Designated ELD instruction using a flexible structure that can also be adapted for ELA-only or ELD-only classrooms.
Note: ERWC is not appropriate for students at a Newcomer level.

Teachers who complete the ERWC 4-day professional learning will receive "forever" access to the ERWC on-line community where 6th-12th grade ERWC curriculum is housed.

Teachers trained within the past 5 years are not eligible to attend.
