

Humboldt County Now Accepting Applications for Local COVID-19 Financial Relief

The County of Humboldt has $3.28 million in funds to assist independent, local businesses. The grants, totaling up to $12,500, are to provide financial relief for expenses incurred as a result of the COVID-19 protocols. Businesses who meet the eligibility criteria may apply for reimbursement not to exceed $500 for expenses incurred in relation to drafting/submitting a certified and approved business reopening plan(s) and may also apply for up to $12,000 ($12,500 combined cap per entity) to assist with COVID-19 related expenses.

These are two SEPARATE grants; an application must be made for each grant.
