The Volunteer Fair

Volunteers are the fuel that make nonprofits run!

*The Volunteer Fair is sponsored by the Pelican Sound Charitable Foundation to provide residents
an opportunity to learn about volunteering in nearby communities.
The following pages provide an overview of the twenty-six charities represented at the event.*

Alliance for Period Supplies of SWFL

Pelican Sound Host:
Linda Christensen

APS of SWFL President:

Dusti Beaubien: dkbien@aol.com

apsofswfl.org

239-877-2528

APS of SWFL became a nonprofit in January 2019 after learning that period poverty wasn't just a Third World problem. It is a silent consequence of poverty existing today throughout the U.S. APS's mission is to provide free, monthly period products to financially-challenged women and girls so they may participate fully in daily life, whether it be school or work.

The problem: When menstruators cannot afford period products, they often depend on substitute products including rags, socks, and paper towels from public restrooms. This can lead to health issues and anxiety, embarrassment, and the inability to focus in the classroom or at work.

As of July 2022, APS has given over 3,000,000 period products to women and girls living in poverty in Southwest Florida. This basic necessity allows girls to attend school and women to be at their hourly jobs.

Audubon Corkscrew Swamp Sanctuary

Pelican Sound Host:
Gwen Bellcourt

Corkscrew Swamp Sanctuary Volunteer and Membership Manager:

Kristina O'Hern: kristina.ohern@audubon.org corkscrew.audubon.org/volunteering 239-348-9151

Corkscrew Swamp Sanctuary occupies approximately 13,450 acres in the heart of the Corkscrew Watershed. It includes the largest remaining virgin bald cypress forest in the world which was historically the site of the largest nesting colony of Federally Endangered Wood Storks in the nation. The Sanctuary provides habitat for the Florida panther, American alligator, gopher tortoise, Florida sandhill crane, Limpkin, Roseate Spoonbill, Snowy Egret, Tricolored Heron, White Ibis, Big Cypress fox squirrel, and the Florida black bear. Several rare plants are also found, most notably the ghost orchid.

Our mission: To preserve Corkscrew Swamp Sanctuary and support conservation and Restoration of natural ecosystems throughout the Western Everglades. We use science driven land management and education to protect birds, other wildlife, and people.

Volunteers play a vital role in our mission. Make a difference for birds and people by becoming a Corkscrew Swamp Sanctuary volunteer!

239-731-3535

As the largest no-kill shelter/sanctuary in SW Florida, we provide interim shelter and medical care to cats and dogs who were once pets and, through no fault of their own, found themselves homeless, injured, or abandoned. Our philosophy avows that once an animal is accepted into our care, it will not be destroyed to make room for another.

We place approximately 500 dogs and cats per year into responsible, loving homes through direct and indirect adoptions.

ARC's ongoing mission is to provide community education as to the needs and care of animals, and public awareness regarding the importance of spaying and neutering their animal companions, with the ultimate result being the elimination of euthanasia.

Blessings In A Backpack SWFL

Pelican Sound Host:

Ann Bird

Cecilia St. Arnold: cecilia@blessingsinabackpack.org

blessingsinswfl.org

239-410-9592

The Blessings in a Backpack program steps-up by feeding children on the weekend. Every Friday afternoon, children receive backpacks filled with kid-friendly, ready-to-eat items. Students return every Monday morning with an empty backpack, a full stomach, and an eager mind. For a lot of kids, food is their most important school supply.

You can volunteer by creating positive note cards with words of encouragement for children to take home over the weekend. These note cards will be attached to the bags of food for the children and will provide them with positive words of encouragement over the weekend. They can say anything from "Have a Great Day!" to "You are loved!" You can get creative! All note cards must be non-denominational and age appropriate.

Cafe of Life

Pelican Sound Host:
Valerie Schaefer

Cafe of Life Executive Director:

Jeff Nichols: caringsharingserving@cafeoflife.org

cafeoflife.org

239-495-9325

Our clients are 90% working poor, mostly Hispanic families, and 10% are homeless. They are single mothers with preschoolers, unemployed day laborers, professionals who may have been a part of downsizing, or persons simply experiencing extreme financial difficulties.

We are not interested in why they have come to us – only that we demonstrate a “caring, sharing, and serving” response to their needs. We serve from 80 to 120 clients each day. In 2021, we served over 21,000 meals.

Volunteers are the heart and soul of the Café of Life. Without them we could not survive. People just like you – concerned that in a “society of plenty” there are those who face each day without the most basic of human needs. In essence, these volunteers “care, share and serve” their fellow man!
