It pays to be sleuthing when the cause is good,
And who can complain about booze in the wood.
Mysteries abound in the April sun,
With food and drink aplenty when our work is done.

The big game hunters came without a gun,
Nevertheless they had a lot of fun.
Now we are sad that we are done,
Please make us happy, tell us we WON!

TEAM 12 – Maureen Traverse, John Traverse, Barry Nelson, JoAnn Nelson, Bill Elsea, Gloria Elsea

There once was a scavenger hunt in Pelican Sound
With carts going crazy driving around.
We may not be winning, but we're dressed in pink,
And when we are finished we'll all have a drink.

There once was a Buckaroo named Sue,
Who never knew what to do.
She went on the hunt and along with her crew,
They figured out what to do.

TEAM 23 – Al Hauer, Jan Hauer, Michael Sias, Patricia Sias, Joan Buffone, Dorsey Hammond

TEAM 14 – Carole Stone, William Stone, Roger Bird, Ann Bird, Eugene Stautberg, Donna Hauck

There once was a hunt in Pelican Sound,
Many items were there to be found.
We took a picture of a brown hound,
We feel like we're going round and round!

We work well as a team,
When we win we will beam.
We're all smarter than we seem,
Listen to us as we SCREAM!

TEAM 25 – Linda Farmer, Roger Farmer, Monika Clark, Bruce Clark, Fred Howard, Kay Howard

TEAM 29 – Judy Comparato, Mike Comparato, Renee Hunt, Jeff Hunt, Mary Grace Gallagher, Scott Gallagher

We love Pelican Sound.
We will stay around
As long as Eric's here
And we can drink beer!

We moved to Pelican Sound in search of beauty,
We were on a mission which was our duty.
In search of drinks refreshing and fruity, and
As a bonus, found our home with friends not SNOOTY!
