Open Hearts. Open Minds. Open Doors.

Friends,

The story of Christmas is one of love that is willing to take risks so that we can know that we are loved with a love that will not let us go. It is a story of Joseph's love for Mary—even before his dream, he wants to treat his pregnant bride as gently as possible. It is a story of God's love for Joseph and Mary as the angel assures them of God's plans and guides their steps. It is a story of God's love for all of us, as Jesus is born to save us from our sins.

I hope to see you this Sunday as we hear again the story of Joseph's decision to adopt Jesus and remember that "Love Came Down at Christmas."

Grace and peace,

Harriet
