Conference & Curriculum Fair March 6-7, 2020

Indian Hills Community Church
Lincoln, Nebraska

You are graciously invited to attend . . .

The NCHEA's 33rd Annual Conference and Curriculum Fair (C&CF). The ultimate purpose of the C&CF is to bring glory and honor to our Lord Jesus Christ in all that is said and done. We hope that the workshops and keynote sessions serve to be a witness to the lost, encouragement to the downtrodden, provide fellowship for believers, and a time of rest for weary parents.

Why should you attend? Come to . . .

- ♦ Be inspired and encouraged by our speakers
- ♦ Shop the exhibit halls and see what's new
- ♦ Meet and have fellowship with other like-minded home-educating parents
- ♦ Mentor new homeschooling parents
- ♦ Learn about homeschooling and parent-led education
- ♦ Enjoy "couple time" away from home and children
- ♦ Be blessed

Sincerely,

NCHEA Board, Officers, and Conference Committee

Sonya Shafer

Simply Charlotte Mason

Sonya Shafer is a popular homeschool speaker and writer, specializing in the Charlotte Mason Method. She has been on an adventure for more than 20 years studying, researching, practicing, and teaching Charlotte's gentle and effective methods of education. Her passion for homeschooling her own four daughters grew into helping others and then into Simply Charlotte Mason, which publishes her many books and provides a place of practical encouragement to homeschoolers at simplycharlottesmason.com.

Workshop Speakers

Angi and Tim Bates

Tim and Angi have been active in homeschool leadership for over 16 years—first in a local support group (Hastings) and then in NCHEA. They have 3 children: two graduated and a seven-year-old still at home. They are excited to encourage other homeschoolers and Tim has a heart for getting fathers involved. Tim is an elder at their church and Angi volunteers at the YMCA and teaches Sunday School. Tim is currently on the NCHEA Board of Directors and Executive Committee. Having seen first-hand the product homeschooling has produced in his two older children, he now has a heart to encourage all potential and current homeschool dads to be the best homeschool dads they can be and to become warriors, protecting their homes from a world out to destroy the family.

Mikaela Betka, OD, FCOVD

Mikaela knows that patients have to see how much you care before they care how much you know. She lives by this mantra to help patients of all ages realize their best possible vision. Her quest is to help people improve their vision to do better in school, work, and in life. She's an expert in visual issues and leads the Vision Therapy team at EyeCare Specialties Center for Vision Development.

Gwelda Carlson

Gwelda Carlson, M.A. taught for more than 30 years in preschool, Head Start and in the public school system, primarily as a special education teacher and literacy teacher. She is an academic tutor, focusing mainly on literacy instruction. She has provided literacy skills instruction at the university level and has provided numerous workshops and staff development sessions in reading. She serves on the Board of Directors for the Nebraska Dyslexia Association.

Vicki Clarke

Vicki is the librarian at Walt Branch Public Library in Lincoln, Nebraska. A former homeschooling mother of six, she returned to her first career as a librarian after staying home with her children for 13 years. Passionate about finding hidden gems and discovering cool new things, Vicki is always eager to show people the great things that can be found at libraries.

Kathleen Cotter Lawler

Kathleen is the daughter of Dr. Joan A. Cotter, author and creator of the RightStart™ Mathematics program. She was one of the first children to grow up under the Activities for Learning principles. Kathleen has a degree in Home Economics from the University of Minnesota and has two master's degrees from the University of Mary in Bismarck, North Dakota. Three of the Lawler children have graduated from North Dakota State University and the youngest is attending college at the University of Minnesota. Kathleen is responsible for program development support, marketing, sales, and general management. She travels all across the US and Canada, sharing the RightStart mission of helping children understand, apply, and enjoy mathematics. She is leading an online class for middle-school students. In her spare time, Kathleen designs and sews quilts and is re-learning how to unicycle.

Latrice Ingram

Latrice Ingram is a certified elementary and special education teacher with over 14 years of teaching experience, including 6 years of homeschooling. Homeschooling is Latrice's most favorite thing. Latrice is also passionate about celebrating diversity and weaving it into the fabric of daily learning, especially in homeschooling homes. She lives in Lincoln with her husband, 4 children, mother, and three very spoiled guinea pigs.

Amy Juett

Amy is a second-generation homeschooler making her home at the end of the road right on the banks of the Calamus River with her husband and four children. She is passionate about cultivating the connections that matter most and seeks to help moms do just that through biblical encouragement, intentional parenting inspiration, and practical life tips on her blog www.calamusmom.com.

Adam Lloyd Johnson

Adam serves as a full-time university campus missionary with Ratio Christi. He teaches classes for Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and spends one month each year teaching at Rheinland Theological Seminary in Wölmersen, Germany. Adam is a Ph.D. candidate at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. Having worked in actuarial science for 10 years, he then was a pastor for 8 years. As an actuary, while in his twenties, he went through a crisis of faith: are there good reasons to believe God exists and the Bible is from Him? His search for answers led him to apologetics and propelled him into ministry with a passion to provide good reasons and evidence to believe Christianity is true. He desires to serve others by equipping Christians and reaching the lost for Christ.

David Lostroh

David Lostroh has served on the board and as Legislative Liaison of the NCHEA for more than 30 years. David has much experience in testifying on bills in the legislature and in lobbying State Senators, as well as United State House and Senate members. David has also worked with the Attorney General, State Board of Education, Commissioners of Education, and others on behalf of home education. David and his wife Lorraine started homeschooling in 1981 and were actively involved in the battle to make homeschooling legal in Nebraska. They home schooled for over 30 years and graduated all nine of their children from their home school. They have 14 grandchildren. David has a degree in Mechanical Engineering, served 5-1/2 years as an Air Force pilot, and worked in engineering for over 37 years.

Nicole McNair

Nicole is a homeschool graduate and a Certified Registered Nurse Anesthetist. She lives in Omaha with her husband and new baby, and has been using the Bullet Journal Method for four years.

Timothy Schmidt

Timothy is a father of 4 and a graduate of The Master's Seminary. He has served as the preaching pastor in the Evangelical Free Church of Firth for the past 10 years. Through a variety of outlets, his passion to train young people to defend their beliefs has been growing since his own days of standing firm in the faith when he was a student at UNL in the mid 90's.

Danna Swartz

Danna and her husband Patrick have volunteered with NCHEA for more than 15 years. They are both involved with teaching their nine children in the home and work professionally as adult educators and corporate trainers. They love to work with new homeschool families to help equip them for the mission ahead.

Workshop Schedule

Friday, March 6

9:30–10:30 a.m.

Charlotte Mason and Her Methods

Sonya Shafer, Auditorium

Join Sonya for a practical and encouraging overview of the simple yet effective methods used in the Charlotte Mason approach. Learn about Charlotte and experience using her methods for yourself during the session.

11 a.m.–Noon

Navigating the Exhibit Hall

Angie Bates, 1422-1423

New conference attendees can join us for a fun orientation session about conference vendors and speakers. Discover great tools for getting the most out of the conference. Join us in the Coffee Shoppe to kick off your weekend at the conference.

The Early Years: Homeschooling Your Preschooler

Sonya Shafer, Auditorium

Give your child what is most important. Instead of academic or social pressures, Charlotte Mason encouraged mothers to give their little ones a full six years of developing good habits, getting acquainted with nature, exploring with the five senses, growing in their spiritual lives, and more. Learn how to give your child a quiet growing time.

Walking on the Homeschool Tight Rope: A Practical Guide to Balancing Life and Lesson Plans

Faith Berens, Chapel

This encouraging workshop offers ideas for how to make homeschooling fit with your family's unique situation and needs as well as your teaching style and your children's learning styles. Faith offers suggestions for scheduling, time management, organization, and teaching children of different ages simultaneously.

Answers to Three Key Questions

Dr. Randy Guliuzza, 2430

This dynamic message asks and answers three important questions relevant to the creation-evolution debate that every Christian should know. 1. How do you interpret and understand Genesis 1 and 2? 2. What is your take on Darwinian evolution and its compatibility with Christian faith? 3. Are you open to the natural world pointing to design? Why or why not? You could be asked these same basic questions by a coworker, your next-door neighbor, or the person worshiping next to you at church. Come and enjoy a whiteboard talk that will prepare you with the biblical and scientific tools to answer these questions with confidence.

Serving with Love and Loving to Serve

Dennis Gundersen, 1404

A child who learns to serve others with joy is sure to become the kind of husband or wife who brings genuine joy into their own family. The servant spirit, which Jesus said makes a person "the greatest of all", is better caught than taught—that is, one must pick it up by being around people who love serving others! Dennis and Naomi have raised four sons who find great delight in serving others and they know how that outlook and attitude is passed on to children.

Building a Solid Math Foundation

Kathleen Cotter Lawler, 1112

Who is going to build a house by starting with the walls? Without a solid foundation, those walls may hold up for a bit but eventually will come crashing down. Math is a lot like building a house. We need to start with a strong foundation and build up from there. It doesn't have to be hard! Come and see how easy it is to teach math.

1–2 p.m

"HLEP!" My Kid Can't Spell

Faith Berens, Chapel

Learn the importance of spelling and presents the developmental stages of spelling. She also shares various strategies, techniques, and fun, hands-on, multi-sensory methods for spelling practice, as well as specialized spelling programs and strategies to help you transform "I am a terrible speller" into "I am a good speller!"

Four Biological Facts the Bible Got Right

Dr. Randy Guliuzza, 2430

Genesis 1 contains remarkable insights about biology long before they were discovered by modern scientists. The Bible's accuracy is magnified because evolutionary theory speaks to the same four basic biological questions and continues to provide profoundly wrong answers. Learn these four fundamental biological questions and the scientific and biblical facts to answer them.

Ready, Set, GO!

Danna Swartz, 1404

How to start, where to find curriculum, when to school, and what a typical day looks like are some of the areas discussed. Get an understanding of Rule 13 and gain valuable information for your homeschool journey. This workshop is a MUST for new homeschoolers.

Vision: It's More Than Just 20/20

Mikaela Betka, 1112

Does your child avoid reading or near work? Do they struggle with reduced reading comprehension or fluency? Do they omit small words or skip lines when reading? Are they struggling to live up to their full potential academically? There are 17 visual skills that are necessary for efficient vision. In this presentation we will discuss the link between vision and learning and the signs and symptoms that might suggest your child is struggling from an undiagnosed visual disorder.

3–4 p.m.

Laying Down the Rails: The Power of Good Habits in Your Homeschool

Sonya Shafer, Auditorium

Discover the secret to smooth and easy days: habit training. Learn how to instill good habits, which habits Charlotte Mason encouraged parents to cultivate in their children, and practical tips for cultivating the Top Three.

Tackling Tricky High School Issues: Practical Help and Guidance for Homeschooling High School Students with Special Needs

Faith Berens, Chapel

This workshop addresses some of the challenges associated with teaching struggling or atypical learners at home in the high school years. Do you have questions such as “How do I award my child with special needs a diploma?” or “What do I do since my child with dyslexia can’t read typical high school level material?” Faith discusses alternative coursework, specialized curricula and learning materials, assistive technology, transcript options, possible graduation guidelines, high school programs for special learners, and post-high school options. She also offers tips for navigating the process of applying for testing accommodations for College Board tests.

Inclusive History: What is it, Why it Matters and How Can You Implement it?

Latrice Ingram, 1112

“History, at root, is a dynamic conversation about the significance of what it means to be human between those of us alive at any one moment and people who have lived at another time and/or in another culture. Fundamental to this conversation, is the act of remembering. Remembering, and its companion act of forgetting, are selective processes not driven by evidence but by the filters of a particular moment.” (National Underground Railroad Freedom Center)

What if the filters with which we look at history could be changed? What if there was far more to the old familiar and famous history stories we learned as kids and chances are, we are currently still teaching our kids? What if we could tell the stories of history and not leave out any of the key players, including people of color who made and are making huge contributions to our nation? Join this interactive workshop as we define Inclusive History, discuss why it matters and plan ways to implement it into your current history studies.

The Place of Great Literature in Character Building

Dennis Gundersen, 2430

Homeschooling families are often heard saying, “The older books are so much better!” Is that really true? Why do people say this? This workshop explains what it is about Christian books from the 19th and 18th centuries that makes them unique, so rich in content, and helpful for the formation of godly character. The result is, you’ll learn how you can best use literature from that era and, in fact, the great literature from every era, to promote Christian character in your children.

Help! I Have to Feed My Family

Angie Bates, 1101-1102

Come get ideas for healthy, nutritious meals for the busy homeschool mother. You will get new recipes, meal planning ideas and also learn how to incorporate sour dough in your daily routine. Take home recipes and your own sour dough starter. Note: Preregistration is required. No walk-ins please.

Three Things Biblical Fathers Must Do, Teach and Exemplify to Their Children

Tim Bates, 1404

With all the demands on our time in this world, how do we do it? What mindset do we need to succeed in a world that seems to do everything possible to compete for our children’s hearts and minds? We will look into God’s Word to see what the Bible has to say on the subject and how to succeed in a fallen world trying to take our children captive. The problem is, we only have 45 minutes!

Keynote Address and Graduate Recognition

7–8:30 p.m.

Preserving Spiritual Liberty Post Graduation

Dr. Randy Guiliuzza, Auditorium

“Freedom isn’t free” is a slogan highlighting the importance of vigilance and defense in the preservation of your liberty from outside threats. Spiritual liberty is when your mind is not captive to the world’s thinking, but is aligned with the mind of Christ. But spiritual liberty faces the broadest threats from the most determined opposition. Preserving liberty boils down to one basic act: faith to believe the Bible. Cultivating a few vital disciplines now will help you to preserve your spiritual liberty for a lifetime.

Register Early for Special Workshops and Activities

We are bringing you some new workshops this year.

To get the most out of them, you must preregister when you sign up for the C&CF. Space is limited so sign up today!

www.NCHEA.org

Saturday, March 7

9–10 a.m.

Habit-Training Yourself: Good Habits are Not Just for Kids

Sonya Shafer, Auditorium

Yes, we want our children to have good habits, but many of us parents struggle with habits in our own lives. Take a look at four powerful pictures that give insight into how habits are formed and what to do about your bad habits. Learn the three most important words to keep in mind when habit-training. Discover how to instill your own good habits that will serve you well and help your days run smoothly.

The Missing Ingredient in Reading Instruction

Faith Berens, Chapel

Do you have a child who just isn't getting phonics—or is struggling with beginning reading instruction? Or perhaps you have a child who has sloppy speech or doesn't seem to hear things correctly? Poor phonemic awareness could be partly to blame. This session provides parent-teachers with an understanding of phonemic awareness skills and how these skills (or lack thereof) impact a child's ability to become a proficient reader. Participants receive a phonemic awareness assessment that they can use at home, take part in interactive activities in order to "play" with phonemic awareness, and receive a list of curriculum, materials, and games that address these important, foundational skills.

Doing Biology as if Darwin Had Not Been Born

Dr. Randy Guliuzza, 2430

Learn about the latest creationist framework for explaining adaptation that integrates with a discussion of how design-based biological explanations expose the inherent idolatry of the concept of natural selection.

History of Homeschooling in Nebraska

Dave Lostroh, 1112

Learn where freedom comes from, how homeschool freedom came about in Nebraska, and how to maintain our freedom. This presentation highlights the various concepts and newspaper clippings from the battle for homeschool freedom in the early 1980s.

Ready, Set, GO!

Danna Swartz, 1101-1102

How to start, where to find curriculum, when to school, and what a typical day looks like are some of the areas discussed. Get an understanding of Rule 13 and gain valuable information for your homeschool journey. This workshop is a MUST for new homeschoolers.

Building a Good Conscience in Your Child

Dennis Gundersen, 1404

What the Bible calls "a good conscience" is vital for our children to form in their youth. Parents can strengthen the conscience, so a child grows into an adult of strong convictions and is compelled from within away from sinful living and towards righteous choices, even when parents are not present. Let's make one of the goals of our instruction "a good conscience" (1 Timothy 1:5). A practical plan for achieving this is the focus of this workshop.

10:15–10:45 a.m.
Exhibitor Workshops

Enjoy some great Exhibitor Workshops during this session!

11 a.m.–Noon

One Word Can Change Everthing: The Strong Weak-Willed Child

Sonya Shafer, Auditorium

When Sonya realized how Charlotte Mason defined strong-willed vs. weak-willed, it completely changed her attitude toward her children. If you feel like you are constantly butting heads in a battle of the wills, this session could revolutionize how you view your child. Discover helpful ideas that can relieve the tension, refresh your perspective, and restore the peace.

Teaching Struggling Learners at Home: Nuts and Bolts for Success

Faith Berens, Chapel

This workshop offers practical resources, lists of materials, and curricula to equip you as you work with a struggling learner in your homeschool. Faith explains multi-sensory teaching methods, direct instruction, modeled teaching, and "scaffolding" instruction. She also shares ideas for designing a unique home instruction program tailored to your child's specific challenges.

Phonemic Awareness: Building Blocks to Phonics

Gwelda Carlson, 1112

We will discuss what children need to know before phonics instruction, how to layer phonemic awareness on phonics instruction, and hands-on activities to help children hear, segment, and blend sounds. Includes hearing initial and ending sounds, sound boxes, rhyming, word families, counting syllables in words, and counting words in sentences. Techniques to enhance learning through movement and multi-sensory activities will be reviewed.

Finding Peace in a Digital World: How to Bullet Journal

Nicole McNair, 1101-1102

Have you wondered what all the hype about regarding Bullet Journals? Come to this interactive workshop to find out all about it. Learn how to organize task lists, journal plans, and stay on top of projects with a Bullet Journal. This workshop will focus on strategies to improve time management, self-care, and habit tracking while you create your own bullet journal. Each attendee will receive their own notebook, pens, and extras to take home. There will also be a drawing for one free official Bullet Journal notebook!

Note: Preregistration is required. No walk-ins please.

Quitting the Herd

Amy Juett, 1404

The pressure to conform is all around us, but we are called to “quit the herd.” In this workshop, we’ll take a look at what it means to quit the herd, why we should quit the herd, examples of biblical and historical herd quitters, and how your choice to be a herd quitter can impact your homeschool, your family, and your legacy.

Made in His Image: Examining the Complexities of the Human Body

Dr. Randy Guliuzza, 2430

Enjoy a fascinating look at several features of human beings that illustrate how they are very different from animals and can actually outperform them in many ways. Discover the complete unity of the human body, emphasizing performance rather than basic anatomy. The talk unfolds dynamically, is highly visual, and will leave no doubt that humans are fearfully, wonderfully, and supernaturally made.

Noon–1:30 p.m.

Support Group Leader Lunch

Support group leaders meet in Room 1101-1102 for lunch and fellowship.

PRE-REGISTRATION is required.

1:30–2:30 p.m.

When More is Less: A Call to Simplicity in Your Schedule, Your Home and Your Children's Education

Sonya Shafer, Auditorium

It’s easy to get caught up in the mentality that we’ve got to add more: we must do more, we must get more, and our children must study more. More, more, more! But the funny thing is that when we keep adding more, we usually end up with less of what really matters. Come discover the richness that simplicity can bring to your schedule, your home, and your children’s education.

What Every Homeschooling Parent Needs to Know About Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

Faith Berens, Chapel

Learn a crucial but frequently misunderstood topic related to special needs homeschooling. In this power-packed workshop, Faith explains the difference between accommodations and modifications, describes 504 Accommodation Law, and answers homeschooling parents’ most frequently asked questions, including:

- Can I give accommodations to my child on end-of-the-year standardized tests? What type of documentation is needed to do so?
- How do homeschoolers apply for special testing accommodations for college entrance exams? What documentation is required by the College Board and ACT in order for my high schooler to be considered for and granted special testing accommodations?

- Should high school students with disabilities discuss and disclose their diagnosis during the college application process?
- Can my college student receive accommodations? What accommodations are colleges required to provide to students with disabilities?

Faith also shares a disability resource guide for teens and young adults.

Education and Careers in Construction

Rick Willet & Ben Carey, 1101-1102

Speed Mentoring

Mom's Discussion Panel, 2430

Come with your most questionable questions for this distinguished panel of experienced homeschool mothers. The format will be a town hall setting with questions answered in two minutes or less. Line up, let’s go!

Libraries Are More Than Books: Finding Online Treasures in Lincoln Libraries

Vickie Clarke, 1112

You have searched the library’s catalog and placed holds on books, but did you know there is so much more you can access on the library’s web page? Libraries subscribe to many online resources that are available for you to use from the convenience of your own home. Discover how to access new software knowledge and technical learning, enhance your reading lists, learn 100 languages, even access a live tutor, plus much more. It is all available with your library card—and learn how you can get one too!

3:30–4:30 p.m.

Keynote Address

Five Minutes With a Darwinist

Dr. Randy Guliuzza, Auditorium

If you only had five minutes to talk with a friend who believes in evolution, could you quickly topple evolution’s main pillars and present a strong case for creation? Gain the skills necessary for Christians to talk intelligently and succinctly with evolutionists—without references to religion, revelation or faith.

Teen Conference

Convincing Proof!

Does God exist? Is Jesus God? Is the Bible from God? Come learn how to defend the truth! Get equipped with good reasons and evidence to believe God does exist. Learn the arguments for God from first cause, from design, and from morality. Discuss common objections against God like the problem of evil and evolution. We'll be utilizing an apologetics book for teens called "Living Loud: Defending Your Faith" by Norman Geisler and Joseph Holden.

After His suffering, he presented himself to them and gave many convincing proofs that he was alive. He appeared to them over a period of forty days and spoke about the kingdom of God.

IN THE BEGINNING GOD

Kids Conference 2020

Bible + Music + Drama + Friends + Games

---

Your children (ages 5-12) will have a great two days exploring the wonders of God's handiwork in the beauty of His creation. The Bible lessons will look intently at the Biblical account of Creation as well as the scientific evidence that supports the Bible. Our crafts and music will help support what the children are learning about our great Creator. Your children will come home with a firm understanding of the Creation account, and the amazing God who made them.
