

Candidates for the Corpus Christi Catholic School Advisory Council “(SAC)”

Current members of the SAC running for re-election:

Brant Hanna: Brant has been a parishioner of Corpus Christi Catholic Church for 6 years. He and his wife, Claire, have three daughters, Miriam (11-5th grade), Amelia (8-3rd grade), and Isabelle (4 years old). He has served on the School Advisory Council for the last three years. He is a graduate of The University of Southern Mississippi class of 01'. Professionally, he has worked for Cintas Corporation in various roles for 15 years.

Brian Heller: Brian and Gretchen Heller have four children, two have graduated from Corpus and two are current students in 3rd and 6th grade. They have been parishioners for over 10 years after moving to Mobile following Brian's service in the USAF. He is presently President of Southern Cancer Center here in Mobile. Brian's focus on the SAC has been on optimizing the excellent academic and spiritual foundations provided by Corpus Christi and on advancing education through technology. He is also an above average dancer (references available upon request).

New candidates:

Kristen DeLeon: Kristen, her husband, Mike, and their three children, Karynn (1st), Laila (K5), and Thomas (K3) joined the Corpus Christi family in June. They are enjoying meeting new people and making new friends within the parish and school community. Before becoming a “domestic engineer”, Kristen taught (5th, 2nd, and K) at a Catholic school in San Pablo, CA for seven years. After a move to Houston, TX, Kristen became a reading specialist for Fort Bend ISD and specialized in teaching students with dyslexia. Kristen still has a passion for teaching reading, she often reads in her children's classrooms and volunteers with a reading intervention group at Kreole Elementary in Moss Point, MS. Kristen also serves as the room mom for one of the first grade classes and has been an active volunteer for PTO activities and fundraisers.

Scott McNally: BS, and MS from South Alabama. JD from Univ. of Alabama. Licensed in AL, MS and FL. Local attorney for 18 years. Catholic for 16 years. Parishioner for 14 years. Coach at Corpus Christi and Westside Baseball park for 10 years. Married to the former Stephanie Zoghby of Mobile. Three boys, Evan (8th), Grant (7th), Cole (1st). I'd like to serve to help improve learning by our students while streamlining expenses and fundraising.

Aimee Meyers: Aimee and her husband, Lloyd, have been parishioners at Corpus Christi for 7 years. She is a co-room mom for K3, volunteers with the PTO to secure funds and acquisitions for the upcoming fundraiser in May 2018 and attends Corpus Christi Church and School events. Aimee has a BS and MS in Exercise Science from the University of South Alabama. Professionally she is the Development Officer for South Alabama specifically for the College of Education & Professional Studies and Global USA. Her interest in serving on the School Advisory Council is to focus on what our students, teachers, and administrators need so they can succeed in academic achievement while keeping in mind facilities, technology, recruitment/retention, and finances. She is married to Lloyd Meyers and has two children, Caroline (7 currently in 1st grade) and Landon (4 currently in K3).

Melissa Mills: Has had her child at CCS for 5 years. She has worked in IT for 20 years and at her current position at the Dauphin Island Sea Lab for 18. She has experience in graphic design, pc support, network administration, system administration, system security, AV, PBX, audio, student information systems, mobile devices and education support. She has been part of the planning and deployment of many large-scale roll outs that have occurred during her tenure at DISL. She was a room mom for her daughter for grades K3 - 1st. She volunteered extensively all though out her younger years at Sacred Heart Church in D'Iberville, MS as a member of their CYO. This included going to World Youth Day in 1993 and the mission in Saltillo, Mexico twice.

Melissa Overstreet: Melissa is the mother of three boys currently attending Corpus Christi. She is a graduate of the University of Southern Mississippi where she earned a BS in journalism with an emphasis in public relations. Prior to becoming a stay-at-home mom, Melissa worked for five years as a public relations account executive specializing in real estate development, retail and non-profit. In 2005, she received a Silver Anvil Award from the Public Relations Society of America for a strategic and integrated marketing campaign for Jabra, a manufacturer of handsfree devices for phones based in Copenhagen, Denmark. Most recently, she has served on the CCS PTO for three consecutive years as treasurer, then vice president and finally PTO president. She collaborated with this year's PTO executive board to bring new and exciting events to CCS including Boo Bash, Breakfast with Santa and the Kentucky Derby Fundraiser. Under her leadership, the PTO has raised around $25,000 to date, and strongly supports technological growth as well as structural maintenance. Melissa is eager to continue her work to help maintain CCS as one of the best parochial schools in Mobile.

Alexandra Steiner: Parishioner since 1999. Two children who've attended Corpus (Senior at McGill; 8th grader at Corpus). M.S. in Community Counseling. Ph.D. in Instructional Design. Over 15 years' experience as university professor teaching pre-service teachers and adult educators. Courses taught: Human Growth and Development, Evaluation of Teaching and Learning, Instructional Tools and Methods, Macro-Level Training Systems.

Abby Woodard: Abby attended Holy Family School and McGill-Toolen Catholic High School. She and her husband, Jonathon, moved back to Mobile in 2012 and currently have a 3rd grader and kindergartner at Corpus Christi Catholic School. Abby serves as the cookie chair for her daughter's Girl Scout troop and is the Superstars Soccer coordinator for K4-1st grades. Abby earned her bachelor's degree in secondary education, social sciences and has a master's degree in history. This is her 14th year in education (5 years at the middle school level and 9 years in high school) and currently teaches at McGill-Toolen Catholic High School.

Leslie Youkey: Leslie has been a parishioner of Corpus Christi since 1987. She is a graduate of CCS and McGill-Toolen. She has an upcoming 6th grader that attends CCS and a 1st grader who will attend CCS this upcoming year. Currently, Leslie is serving as the CCS PTO Secretary, where she has helped implement various new events for the school. Professionally, for the past 18 years, she has been a public school teacher with her Masters in Educational Administration.
