

Women

BEHIND THE WINES

Renée Ary | DUCKHORN VINEYARDS

Renée was promoted to winemaker for Duckhorn Vineyards in 2014 after spending 11 years honing her craft and mastering the Duckhorn style. After graduating from St. Mary's College, Renée gained hands-on experience in the lab of Robert Mondavi Winery while also taking winemaking classes at UC Davis and Napa Valley College. Her approach balances artistry, science and respect for the viticultural side of winemaking.

Dana Epperson | DECOY & MIGRATION

A third generation Sonoman, Dana is the gifted winemaker who guides both Migration's and Decoy's winemaking. Combining her extensive viticultural background with winemaking experience gained working in several top California wine regions, Dana practices a vineyard-driven approach to winemaking that accentuates the character and complexity of the renowned winegrowing regions that Migration and Decoy source from.

Kristen McMahan | GOLDENEYE

As the winemaker for Goldeneye, Kristen is committed to crafting wines that embody both the rustic beauty and refinement that have made the Anderson Valley famous among Pinot Noir enthusiasts. Combining a love of Pinot Noir—both still and sparkling—with a keen scientific mind, and a passion for creativity and collaboration, Kristen has quickly established herself as one of Anderson Valley's rising star winemakers.

Katie Povah | POSTMARK

Born in Sonoma County, Katie grew up in a family of avid wine enthusiasts. She received her degree in wine and viticulture from Cal Poly and is a gifted winemaker. With more than 15 years of experience making wines on California's acclaimed Central Coast, Katie brings a deep and nuanced understanding of the Paso Robles wine region to her role at Postmark.

