

California County Planning Commissioners' Association (CCPCA)

94TH GENERAL CONFERENCE IN TULARE COUNTY

October 24-25, 2025 | Hampton Inn & Suites, Tulare, CA

Join us for the 94th Annual Conference of the California County Planning Commissioners' Association (CCPCA), taking place October 24–25, 2025, in Tulare County. This statewide gathering will bring together Planning Commissioners and regional leaders to explore how thoughtful land use decisions shape stronger, healthier communities.

Event Details (Two-Day Event)

- Dates and Times: Friday, October 24, 2025, and Saturday, October 25, 2025 (8 a.m. - 6 p.m.)
- Location: Hampton Inn & Suites, 1100 N. Cherry St., Tulare, CA
 - Special Hotel Rate: $129

Who Is Invited?

This event is open to interested parties from government and private sectors, including business, community, and civic leaders. Participation from County Planning Commissioners from all 58 California Counties is strongly encouraged.

What Will You Learn?

Attendees will enjoy guided site tours of industries central to rural development - including healthcare, housing, logistics, and innovation - and engage in timely, solutions-focused sessions on:

- Community Development: Housing and healthcare integration
- Environmental Concerns: Water, drought resilience, and SGMA compliance
- Rural Economic Development: Cross-sector collaboration with local, state, and federal partners
- Planning Commissioner 101: A foundational training for new commissioners

Event Cost

- Full Conference: $234
- One Day Only: $123
- Spouse or Guest: $82
- Student/Planning Staff: $159

More Info & Online Registration: www.planningcommission.org
Questions? Please contact CCPCA Board President Jerry Morrow by email (jdmd5391@gmail.com) or by phone (209) 586-2979.

Thank you to our hosts, sponsors and speakers, including:

California County Planning Commissioners' Association (CCPCA)

94TH GENERAL CONFERENCE IN TULARE COUNTY

October 24-25, 2025 | Hampton Inn & Suites, Tulare, CA

SESSIONS & TOURS

Friday, October 24, 2025, 9 a.m.

During Day 1, participants will learn about:

- Tulare Business Innovation Zone (TBIZ) – Business accelerator & maker's space in Downtown Tulare
- Zumwalt Park & Adventist Health Amphitheater – Renovated park & performance venue
- Eagle Mountain Casino – Relocated into Porterville, a major regional economic development project
- Rexford Solar + Battery Storage Project – Large-scale renewable energy site
- Setton Pistachios – One of the nation's largest pistachio processors

Saturday, October 25, 2025, 9 a.m.

During Day 2, participants will learn about:

- Salt + Light Neighborhood Village – Supportive housing community with wraparound, whole-person care
- Self-Help Enterprises – Nationally recognized nonprofit building healthy homes and communities
- Environmental Concerns – Water, drought resilience, and SGMA compliance in Tulare County
- Rural Economic Development – Cross-sector collaboration with local, state, and federal partners
- Planning Commissioner 101 – Foundational training for new and experienced commissioners
- Calgren Renewable Fuels – Bioenergy facility producing low-carbon ethanol, renewable natural gas, and sustainable co-products

SCAN HERE

SCAN QR Code
for Event &
Special Hotel
Rate ($129/night).

More Info & Online Registration: www.planningcommission.org

Questions? Please contact CCPCA Board President Jerry Morrow by email (jdm5391@gmail.com) or by phone (209) 586-2979.

Thank you to our hosts, sponsors and speakers, including:

