

CyberCorps® Scholarship for Service

Department of Computer Science

Missouri S&T

Now accepting NSF scholarship applications!

● What is SFS scholarship?

- A prestigious scholarship funded by National Science Foundation (NSF)
- 2000+ SFS scholars national wide
- Graduates serve the country on improving cybersecurity

● What are covered by scholarship?

- Stipend: $34K/year for MS or PhD
- Full tuition fees
- $4000/year professional development
- $3000/year health insurance
- $2000/year book allowance

● Who can apply?

- U.S. citizen or permanent resident only
- GPA  $\geq 3.3/4.0$  or have government internship
- Able to pass background investigation
- Committed to pursue MS or PhD at EECS
- Committed to serve in federal, state, or local government, or national labs for the same number of years of scholarship

● Job Placement of SFS scholars:

- Nearly 100% job placement for SFS scholars
- Special job fairs organized by NSF for SFS scholars only
- More than 140 federal agencies open a special channel to hire only SFS scholars
- Excellent job security, employee benefits, paid vacations, regular working hours, etc.

● How to apply?

- Fill an application form at <http://faculty.missouri.edu/lindan/cybercorps/application.html>
- Most current resume
- Transcripts from all colleges or universities attended
- A statement of purpose detailing academic, professional, and personal goals, and how participation in the Scholarship for Service program will help achieve these goals
- Two names of references who are faculty or your former employers

Contact Dr. Dan Lin at lindan@missouri.edu or visit <http://faculty.missouri.edu/lindan/cybercorps/index.html> for application forms and other information.