

Are you confused and overwhelmed with getting your child needed special education, speech therapy, OT,PT,or counseling?

Has your child been denied services from the Committee on Special Education (CSE)?

Get free expert guidance through The Navigator Program, servicing New York City nonpublic school parents. Stop waiting months for evaluations. Let's ensure your child gets the services they need, when they need them.

Attend one of our workshops and empower yourself to advocate effectively for your child's success.
