

The Property Management Professional of the Year award honors a property management professional (with less than 15 years of experience) who has demonstrated commitment to excellence in property management, including operational excellence and tenant satisfaction in managing BOMA Greater Minneapolis member buildings.

BOMA'S 2021 PROPERTY MANAGEMENT PROFESSIONAL OF THE YEAR

Jenny Rich

Real Estate Manager, Ryan Companies U.S., Inc.

Jenny is an active BOMA member and has been active as an International TOBY Award Winner, as well as being current co-chair of the Awards and Recognition Committee. One of her nominators stated that "she is often quiet but speaks with meaning and passion and is never too busy to answer a question for a coworker or friend." Jenny started at Ryan in 2007 and has successfully held all the various responsibilities of a management office throughout her career. During this unprecedented year, Jenny has successfully navigated the unknown to ensure the safety and well-being of our tenants, vendors and team members by staying involved with local law enforcement, the DID, security partners and network of downtown managers. All this while teaching her two sons from home!

Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA) of Greater Minneapolis held its eighth annual Best of BOMA Gala virtually on February 18, 2021 to recognize and celebrate the best commercial real estate professionals, the best commercial real estate properties, and the best service providers in the industry.

Individual winners were recognized in eight categories: Executive Management Professional of the Year, Senior Property Management Professional of the Year, Property Management Professional of the Year, Senior Engineering Professional of the Year, Engineering Professional of the Year, Emerging Leader of the Year, Service Partner of the Year, and Chair's Award. Information about the other award winners can be found on the BOMA website at www.bomampls.org.
