

The Chair's Award recipient is selected by BOMA's Chair to recognize a BOMA member who has demonstrated extraordinary commitment to furthering the mission of BOMA Greater Minneapolis and enhancing benefits of membership for colleagues in the association.

BOMA'S 2021 CHAIR'S AWARD RECIPIENT

Jami Klausen

General Manager, Ryan Companies U.S., Inc.

Jami has been an active member of BOMA Greater Minneapolis since 2001 and currently chairs the Awards & Recognition committee and served as a Director on the Board from 2009-2012. As chair of the Awards & Recognition committee, she is in charge of a small army of volunteers tasked with visiting and evaluating buildings scattered across the metro. Currently, Jami is the General Manager of AT&T Tower in downtown Minneapolis where she has been since 2014. Under Jami's leadership, AT&T Tower won an International TOBY Award in 2019 in the 500,000 - 1 Million Sq. Ft. category! Jami contributes to her community by volunteering with her children in an effort to instill in them that service to others is an important virtue. Together, they participate in prepping a traditional Native American meal at the First Nations soup kitchen.

Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA) of Greater Minneapolis held its eighth annual Best of BOMA Gala virtually on February 18, 2021 to recognize and celebrate the best commercial real estate professionals, the best commercial real estate properties, and the best service providers in the industry.

Individual winners were recognized in eight categories: Executive Management Professional of the Year, Senior Property Management Professional of the Year, Property Management Professional of the Year, Senior Engineering Professional of the Year, Engineering Professional of the Year, Emerging Leader of the Year, Service Partner of the Year, and Chair's Award. Information about the other award winners can be found on the BOMA website at www.bomampls.org.
