At Stempel College, we understand that academic success can be affected by financial aid and funding opportunities. Our students have access to myriad funding options by degree level (bachelor’s, master’s, doctoral) and by academic discipline (Public Health, Dietetics & Nutrition, Social Work, Disaster Preparedness). It’s important to understand the basics of applying for financial aid and the additional resources available to you as a Stempel College student.

Stempel College Scholarships

C.V. STARR SCHOLARSHIP
This scholarship assists students from Latin America and the Caribbean who are interested in pursuing a doctoral degree in one of the three major disciplines at Stempel College with an award of up to $24,000.

STEMPEL RESEARCH AWARD FOR NEW MASTER’S STUDENTS
The Stempel Research scholarship provides new master’s students with the opportunity to engage in a research project with a Stempel faculty member. Students will receive hands-on research experience working alongside a faculty member on a pre-determined topic or project for two consecutive semesters. $3,400 total.

MARIAN DUMAINE SCHOLARSHIP FOR MSW PRACTICUM STUDENTS
This scholarship honors the memory of Dr. Marian Dumaine, former field coordinator for the School of Social Work. The award provides funding for Master of Social Work students entering the field practicum, or field internship, component of their coursework.

AUSLANDER SCHOLARSHIP FOR DIETETICS AND NUTRITION
The Auslander Family Scholarship is intended to recognize and provide financial support for outstanding students who wish to become registered dietitians and who are enrolling in a dietetic internship.

PAUL C. BELL, JR. NON-GOVERNMENTAL ORGANIZATION (NGO) SCHOLARSHIP
This scholarship is awarded to any student working or volunteering for an NGO (e.g., Save the Children, OXFAM, American Red Cross, Salvation Army, The Southern Baptist Disaster Relief) at time of admission.

MAJOR PHIL MAY SCHOLARSHIP
This scholarship is awarded to a student demonstrating the dedication to advance their studies in emergency preparedness and disaster management.

R. DAVID PAULISON EXCEPTIONAL STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP
This scholarship is awarded to a student demonstrating exceptional academic achievement and contributions to the community.
Angel Algarin
Doctoral Public Health Student in Epidemiology
C.V. Starr Scholarship
As a Puerto Rican student who represents the first generation of my family to go to college, this award has made my dreams of becoming a prominent Latin researcher in the field of epidemiology more achievable. I hope to continue my work focusing on the cognitive function of aging Latinos living with HIV in order to help our community and its future health.

Cedric Nichols
Master’s Student in Social Work
Marian Dumaine Scholarship for MSW Practicum Students
I am honored that I was chosen to receive this scholarship and won’t take the opportunity for granted. This scholarship has made me understand the value of paying things forward. So in the future, when I’m financially stable, I will be donating my time and money as you have done for me.

Carhen Espinosa
Graduate Student in the Dietetic Internship
Auslander Scholarship for Dietetics and Nutrition
I am currently doing my rotations at the Veteran Affairs Hospital. I will finish my rotations by August and plan on taking my RD exam as soon as I am done. Your financial support to help me cover my tuition and other education-related expenses will definitely take me a step closer to achieving my dream of becoming a registered dietitian.

Lumane Pluviose-Claude
Master’s Student in Disaster Management
Paul C. Bell, Jr. Non-Governmental Organization (NGO) Scholarship
