

Rust Winterfaire

The background of the poster features a series of stylized, white line-art trees and snowflakes. The trees are of various shapes and sizes, some filled with patterns like circles, triangles, or swirls. The snowflakes are simple six-pointed shapes. The entire design is set against a solid blue background.

RUST LIBRARY

Saturday, Dec. 14
and Sunday, Dec. 15

See reverse side for schedule.

To request a reasonable accommodation for a disability, call 703-777-0368. Three days' notice is requested.

LOUDOUN COUNTY
PUBLIC LIBRARY
library.loudoun.gov

Saturday, Dec. 14

Canned Food Drive, 10 a.m.–5 p.m.

Help us make a canned food igloo. Bring a canned food item that is not expired and we will add it to our igloo. All items will be donated to a local food pantry.

Cozy Coloring, 10 a.m.–5 p.m.

Stop in for some cozy winter coloring with the family.

It Takes a Village Baby! Diaper Drive, 10 a.m.–5 p.m.

We will be collecting diapers to donate to the nonprofit, It Takes a Village, Baby!, which provides essential baby supplies to families in need in Loudoun County and surrounding areas.

Fueled by a network of local volunteers and supporters, the Village is committed to improving quality of life for vulnerable babies and their families.

Joyful Jingles!

Come listen to the joyful music of the season.

- Danny Weber-Arnie Helmick Duo, 11 a.m.
- Quentin Walston, 1 p.m.
- Seasonal Music with Tabby Finch and Ralph Gordon, 2:30 p.m.
- LCHS Tri-M Music Honory Society, 3 p.m.

Galaxy Ornaments, 11 a.m.

Create an ornament that is out of this world using glitter and acrylic paint.

Party Pairings, 11 a.m.

Wine professionals will teach you how to pair wine and food for entertaining as well as how to select bottles for gifting and holiday parties. For adults.

Bells Bring Good Cheer, 12:30 p.m.

The Heavenly Ringers handbell choir will perform and then help you make some music of your own.

DIY Gift Giving, 1 p.m.

Make homemade gifts. Supplies provided.

Recycled Gift Bags, 2 p.m.

Design and decorate a gift bag from recycled jeans and CDs. Supplies provided.

Etch a Holiday Glass, 3 p.m.

Create custom glass. Etch a holiday theme on your glass or personalize with a name. Glasses are provided or you can bring your own. For high schoolers and adults.

Thrift and Gift, 3:30 p.m.

Find the perfect gift without breaking the bank. Thrifter Liz Bowen will show you how to navigate your local thrift stores and create a gift-giving plan for every person on your list.

Sunday, Dec. 15

Canned Food Drive, 1 p.m.–5 p.m.

Help us make a canned food igloo. Bring a canned food item that is not expired and we will add it to our igloo. All items will be donated to a local food pantry.

It Takes a Village Baby! Diaper Drive, 1 p.m.–5 p.m.

We will be collecting diapers to donate to the nonprofit, It Takes a Village, Baby!, which provides essential baby supplies to families in need in Loudoun County and surrounding areas.

Fueled by a network of local volunteers and supporters, the Village is committed to improving quality of life for vulnerable babies and their families.

Joyful Jingles!

Come listen to the joyful music of the season.

- The Golden Ukesters, 1 p.m.
- Franklin Park Big Band, 3 p.m.

Make Your Own Holiday Cards, 1 p.m.

Use a variety of fun techniques to make your own holiday greeting cards.

Chinese New Year: Lanterns and Letters, 1:30 p.m.

Celebrate Chinese New Year by making a Chinese paper lantern and learning how to put Chinese letters on it.

Play Along with the Golden Ukesters, 2 p.m.

Learn how to play a holiday song on a ukelele with The Golden Ukesters.

Fairy Tale Family Steam, 3 p.m.

Enjoy a fairy tale story followed by an gingerbread man engineering-related challenge.

Make a Gingerbread House, 3 p.m.

Use graham crackers and other sweet treats to create a gingerbread house.

Volunteer Project: Pet Beds and Pet Toys, 3:30 p.m.

Volunteer some time to make a pet bed or a pet toy to donate to the local animal shelter. Our furry friends will appreciate it.