

OPEN CALL: GOOD TROUBLE / U DECIDE EXHIBITION. America's artists honor the legacy of John Lewis.

The CENTER FOR CONTEMPORARY POLITICAL ART and Washington's MILLENNIUM ARTS SALON, both 501-(c)-(3) nonprofits, are issuing this Open Call for Art to illustrate Get-Out-the-Vote posters to be shown in a juried exhibition in Washington , circulated on Social Media, and possibly displayed on billboards in cities across the country. For more, click here.

Arts Leaders of Color Emergency Fund provides micro-grants to BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, People of Color) artists AND administrators (consultants, facilitators, box office staff, and seasonal/temporary employees financially impacted due to COVID-19. Click here for information.

The Pollock-Krasner Foundation Grant Fund supports artists' living expenses and art supplies. All applications are considered immediately. For application information click here .

The Adolph & Esther Gottlieb Foundation offers one-time emergency grant assistance to visual artists, printmakers, and sculptors. Read more here .

Foundation for Contemporary Arts offers a one-time grant assistance to artists who are at the receiving end of cancelled or postponed exhibitions or performances. To apply, click here .