Summer Project Ideas

All-Genres List

1. Design and make your own t-shirt.

- Illustrate a scene or character from the book on a t-shirt.
- Write a short summary of the scene and explain why it is important to the story. If you choose to illustrate a character, write a description of the character and why he or she is important to the story.

2. Create a mobile from items related to the story.

- Select 10 items that represent people, places, events, or other parts of the book and hang them from a hanger using string or yarn.
- Write a key that explains each object and why you chose it.

3. Make two “wanted” posters for 2 characters in the book.

- Choose 2 characters from the book for which you will make posters.
- Research sample wanted posters. Information to include on your poster: the “crime,” physical description, where the character was last seen, and reward amount.

4. Make a new book jacket for the book.

- Front cover: Draw and color an illustration for the book.
- Inside front flap: Write descriptions of the main characters.
- Inside back flap: Write a description of the setting and a short summary of the book.
- Back cover: Write 5-10 quotes from the book that are important to understanding the story.

5. Create a collage to represent the book.

- Your collage should have at least 10 photos or illustrations.
- Write a key describing each item on the collage.

6. Create a book in bag.

- Choose 10 items that represent people, places, events, and other parts of the book. Place them in a brown paper bag.
- Create a label for your bag that includes the title and author.
- Write a key describing each of the items and explain their importance to the story.

7. Write a letter to the author that shows your reaction to the book.

- Include all elements of a friendly letter (date, greeting, body, closing, & signature).
- Include: 1. Your opinion of the book and reasons for your opinion 2. The character in the book you are most like and why 3. Your favorite part of the book 4. At least 2 questions you have about the book
- Make sure you include your home or school address in the letter.
- Include an addressed envelope with your return address & the author’s address.

8. Write out an interview between you and a character.

- Write 10 questions to ask your character. Then, answer each question as you think the character would respond.

9. Create a board or card game about the book.

- The game should include details about the setting, characters, and plot to show knowledge of the book.
- Include instructions about how to play.

10. Draw and paint or color a portrait of a character.

- Include a description of the character you draw or paint. (What does he or she look like? How old is he or she? What type of person is she? Why is he or she important to the story?)

11. Create an illustrated timeline showing important events from the book.

- Choose at least 10 important events from the story. Write a description of each event, and draw & color an illustration for each event.
- The events must be in the order in which they occurred.

12. Create a diorama of a scene from the book.

- Create a scene from the book in a shoebox.
- Write a description of what the scene shows.

13. Make a map of places where the story took place.

- The map should be colored.
- Write a description of what each place is and why it is important.

14. Create a sculpture of a character.

- Use modeling clay or papier-mâché to sculpt a character.
- Write a description of who the character is and why he or she is important.

15. Make 3 drawings of important scenes from the book.

- Drawings should be colored.
- Write a description of what each scene is and why it is important.

16. Create a book award.

- Choose a book award to give to your book. Create a ribbon for the award.
- Draw and color the book cover, and place the book award ribbon on the cover.
- On the back of the book cover, explain why you are giving the award to the book.

17. Create an album cover.

- On one side of the cover, come up with 10 song titles that represent characters, events, or settings in the book. Below each of your titles, write a short summary.
- Illustrate the cover on the other side and include the author and title of the book.

18. Write a report card for a character in your book.

- Choose a character in your book. Come up with 5 areas of his or her personality to grade based on how the character behaved in the story.
- Write the character's name at the top of the page. Give the character a grade in each subject and give details from the story to support the grade with comments.

19. Write a test for the book you read.

- Use information from the book you read to create a test that you could give other readers to check their understanding of the story.
- The test should include matching, multiple choice, and short answer questions.
- Vocabulary section: Use 5 words and their definitions
- Comprehension section: Write 15 questions about the characters, events, and setting of the story.

20. Create a book trailer.

- Your assignment is to create a unique book "trailer" for your summer reading book. Like a movie trailer grabs your interest in a coming attraction, your book trailer will supply basic background information and entice your audience to read the book for themselves without giving away the book's ending! In order to create this project, you can use any technology you wish. Some suggestions: iMovie, Windows Movie Maker, or your digital camera or cell phone. See the Sac website for detailed instructions.

Fiction List

1. Write a comic book version of your book.

- Use 8 ½ x 11 inch paper (Create the book on the full page or folded hamburger-style.) • Comics should be colored.

2. Write 3 diary entries that a character would write that include details about the story.

- Diary entries should be at least 10 sentences each. • Diary entries can be typed or handwritten.

3. Prepare a travel brochure for a book.

- Create a colorful brochure based on the setting of your book. • Give reasons people should want to visit this location. • Describe what occurred in this location in the book.

4. Send three postcards from one of the characters to your teacher.

- On the back of each postcard, write a short summary of an important event from the story. • On the front, illustrate that event.

5. Create a picture story for your book.

- Rewrite the book for a Kindergarten or 1st grade audience. Use short sentences and ageappropriate words so that they can read it easily. Make sure to include all major parts of the story. • Illustrate each page to go along with the story.

6. Write 3 diary entries that a character would write that include details about the story.

- Diary entries should be at least 10 sentences each. • Diary entries can be typed or handwritten.

7. Write a new ending for the story or add an extra chapter.

8. Create a Venn diagram to show similarities and differences in the traits of the main character and yourself.

- Have at least 5 similarities between main character and you • Have at least 5 differences for the main character and 5 differences for you (no repeats!) • Minimum total of written pieces of information = 15

Nonfiction List

1. Create a “Ten Facts About [Book Title]” handout.

- Create a fact sheet of 10 facts you found out during reading but did not know before you read the book. • Nonfiction/Informational; Biography & Autobiography

2. Create trading cards.

- Pick 5 important people from the book. On the front, draw and color a picture of the person. • On the back, write the person name; birthday; hometown; high school or university attended; important facts and accomplishments • Biography & Autobiography

3. Write a letter to the person of focus in your book asking questions, making a complaint or a suggestion, or writing your opinion about something that happened in the story.

- Include all elements of a friendly letter (date, greeting, body, closing, & signature).
