Congressional Record Presented to Halifax Community College President

WELDON, NORTH CAROLINA – During Halifax Community College’s Employee Appreciation program, Kimberly Mack, district director for Congressman Don Davis, presented HCC President Dr. Patrena B. Elliott with a Congressional Record on behalf of Congressman Davis.

The Congressional Record recognizes community colleges as a lifeline for eastern North Carolina, rural America, and beyond. It acknowledged meetings held with several community college presidents, including President Elliott.

“We are grateful for Congressman Davis’ recognition of the work we are doing, and his advocacy at the federal level is invaluable to our students and the communities we serve,” stated Dr. Elliott.
