

Blessing of Pomegranates Service

Sunday, December 29, 2024

Following the Divine Liturgy

As the year draws to a close, join us for the beautiful and meaningful tradition of the Blessing of Pomegranates. The pomegranate - a timeless symbol of life, prosperity, and fertility in Armenian culture - has graced our art, architecture, literature, and faith for centuries.

Be a part of this inspiring ceremony of hope, renewal, and abundance.

Pomegranates will be blessed and joyfully shared with everyone following the service. Whether you are a lifelong parishioner or visiting for the first time, we warmly invite you to join us in fellowship and gratitude.
