

A Presentation about AYO by Sarah Stites

Join us on March 29h @ 7pm at St. Mary Church Cultural Hall for an evening presentation to learn more about the AYO.

Sarah Stites will give a short talk about her journey to Armenia , why she decided to stay, what they do at Ayo, and let people know how they can contribute.

Sarah is the Development Officer for Ayo!, the crowdfunding platform of Fund for Armenian Relief (FAR). 25% Armenian by blood, she is an unlikely repatriate (and now a dual citizen). Sarah will talk about her personal story of moving from DC to Gyumri, learning Armenian, discovering more about the grandfather she never met, and becoming involved with Ayo! and its projects across Armenia, her home for the past (almost five!) years. with Ayo! and its projects across Armenia, her home for the past (almost five!) years.
