

College of Visual and Performing Arts

REVA AND SID
DEWBERRY FAMILY
SCHOOL OF MUSIC
George Mason University®

DEWBERRY FACULTY ARTIST SERIES

Linda Apple Monson and Anna Balakerskaia, duo piano

Silver Anniversary Concert
(2000 – 2025)

Sunday, February 23, 2025
3:00 p.m.
Harris Theatre

PROGRAM

Hungarian Dance No. 6 in Db Major	Johannes Brahms (1833-1897)
Andante in F from Clavier Sonata in D Minor	J.S. Bach (1685-1750)
Hungarian Dance No. 2 in D Minor	Johannes Brahms (1833-1897)
Waltz from Masquerade	Aram Khachaturian (1903-1978)
Porgy and Bess (Fantasy for Two Pianos)	George Gershwin (1898-1937)
Introduction	arr. Percy Grainger (1882-1961)
“My Man’s Gone Now”
“It Ain’t Necessarily So”
“Clara, Don’t You Be Down-Hearted”
“Strawberry Call”
“Summertime”
“Oh, I Can’t Sit Down”
“Bess, You Is My Woman Now”
“Oh, I Got Plenty O’ Nuttin”
“Oh Lawd, I’m On My Way”
Prelude to Fugalunacy	Glenn Smith (b. 1946)
Composed for Linda Apple Monson and Anna Balakerskaia in 2012
Tres Romances Argentinos	Carlos Guastavino (1912-2000)
I. Las Niñas
Liebertango	Astor Piazzolla (1921-1992)
Scaramouche, Op. 165b	Darius Milhaud (1892-1974)
III. Brasileira

Linda Apple Monson and Anna Balakerskaia, duo-piano

MEET THE ARTISTS

Dr. Anna Balakerskaia is a “consistently thrilling pianist” (Judy Gruber, Washington Post) whose expression “wells with a delightful freedom,” (Robert Dumm, Clavier) and whose sound “is warm and deep.” (Elaine Fine, American Record Guide) Indeed, the legendary Russian violinist and conductor, Viktor Tretyakov, writes this about Dr. Balakerskaia: “A unique, almost extrasensory feeling of ensemble, excellent pianism, a radiant personality – that is [Anna] Balakerskaia!”

As the three-time prizewinner of the Best Accompanist Diploma at the International Tchaikovsky Competition, her career has brought her to some of today’s greatest concert halls, including Carnegie Hall in New York City, the Teatro Colon in Buenos-Aires, the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington D.C., the Palais des Beaux-Arts in Brussels, and the Salle Gaveau in Paris, among many others.

Dr. Balakerskaia has also had the pleasure of making music with a number of internationally renowned artists, including Leonid Kogan, Mikhail Gantvarg, Ilya Kaler, Kirill Kondrashin, Daniel Shafran, Valery Gergiev, and Yuri Temirkanov. She also played with Jacqueline du Pre for Mstislav Rostropovich.

Dr. Balakerskaia is a founding member of the “Ensemble da Camera of Washington”, a trio of musicians from Brazil, Germany and Russia, based in Washington, D.C., and renowned internationally for their “extraordinary technical skill and musical perception.” (Joseph McLellan, Washington Post) The Ensemble has produced several well-praised recordings, while also acting as Artists-in-Residence of the American Youth Philharmonic. They created the Chamber Music Program of the AYPO, where they hold monthly masterclasses and perform a series of concerts. This program is supported by a generous grant from the National Endowment for the Arts.

Additionally, Dr. Balakerskaia is the founder of her own concert series, “Anna and Friends”, regularly held at George Mason University in Fairfax, VA. Besides featuring the “Ensemble da Camera”, Dr. Balakerskaia has also had the distinct pleasure of featuring world-renowned violinist and conductor Zino Bogachek, with whom she has recorded several CDs, and great pianist Darya Gabay, Dr. Balakerskaia’s daughter-in-law.

Dr. Balakerskaia has had a distinct teaching career, serving on the faculties of the St. Petersburg and Moscow conservatories. She currently is in her eighteenth-year teaching at George Mason University, where she is Term Professor of Piano and Chamber Music. She also serves on the faculty of several summer music festivals in Italy, Germany, Russia, and the Netherlands. and is Artist-in-Residence at the Orfeo International Music Festival. Her students have won prizes at many international competitions, including the Rubinstein International Piano Competition and the Thomas and Evan Cooper International Competition, and currently perform and teach across the globe.

Dr. Balakerskaia received her Master of Music and Doctor of Musical Arts in Piano Performance, Pedagogy and Chamber Music from St. Petersburg State Conservatory, where she studied piano with Elena Gugel, Nadejda Golubovskaia, chamber music with Tamara Fidler, and accompanying with Sofia Vakman.

Dr. Linda Apple Monson, International Steinway Artist, serves as the Director of the Dewberry School of Music in the College of Visual and Performing Arts at George Mason University. A Distinguished Service Professor, Monson was awarded the John Touns Presidential Medal for Excellence in Teaching at George Mason University's 2018 Spring Commencement Ceremony. The Touns Presidential Medal is presented to "a faculty member whose teaching exemplifies Mason's commitment to ongoing innovation and excellence in delivering a transformative learning experience to our students."

Linda Apple Monson has recently been inducted into the Steinway Teacher Hall of Fame in New York City on October 4, 2023. The Steinway & Sons Music Teacher Hall of Fame is a prestigious designation "recognizing the work of North America's most committed and passionate piano educators."

Named the George Mason University Distinguished Faculty Member of the Year (2012), Monson also received the Influential Women of Virginia award (2014). Monson delivered two TED-X talks and received the Toastmaster's International Communication and Leadership Award (2014) "in recognition of outstanding dedication, leadership, and contributions in the areas of education and international understanding." Monson is the recipient of the George Mason University Teaching Excellence Award (2009) "for exemplary dedication to student learning and commitment to educational excellence." In honor of the extraordinary impact of Monson's teaching and music leadership at George Mason University, multiple donors established in 2011 the Dr. Linda Apple Monson Music Endowment Fund. A professor at Mason since 1999, Monson has also served as Director of Music at Springfield United Methodist Church for many years.

A $5 million scholarship commitment from the Reva and Sid Dewberry Family established the Dr. Linda Apple Monson Scholars Endowed Fund to support outstanding artist-scholars in Mason's School of Music. Monson was recognized through the renaming of the Grand Tier III of Mason's Center for the Arts in her honor to the Dr. Linda Apple Monson Grand Tier. The Board of Visitors approved the renaming of Mason's School of Music to the Reva and Sid Dewberry Family School of Music in 2020, in honor of the Dewberry's legacy of giving and generous support of the School.

A nationally recognized arts leader, Monson was elected to the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM) Commission on Accreditation, the board granting accreditation for music programs at universities and conservatories across the nation. Monson currently serves as Chair of Region 7 of NASM (representing seven states) and she serves on the NASM Executive Board. She was selected for the Fulbright Senior Specialist Roster, in collaboration with the U.S. State Department and the Council for International Exchange of Scholars. Monson served as a juror for the 2023 International Young Artist Piano Competition (2023) in Washington D.C., International Juror of the Washington Piano Invitational Competition (2013) at the Kennedy Center and was named a Visiting Guest Professor at Nanjing Normal University, China (2010).

An active performer-scholar and an internationally recognized master teacher, Monson has given lecture-recitals, solo piano recitals, and piano master classes throughout the United States, Europe, Asia, Latin America, and Australia. An advocate of new music, Monson has presented numerous world premieres of solo piano works. Her research and performance have been featured in invited lecture-recitals at the College Music Society International Conferences in Lithuania and Estonia in July of 2023. She has been a featured presenter at CMS International Conferences in Brussels, Sydney, Stockholm, Helsinki, Buenos Aires, Dubrovnik, Bangkok, Madrid, and San Jose. Monson has also given lecture-recitals and piano masterclasses internationally in Seoul, Oxford, Dublin, Nanjing, Kuala Lumpur, San Jose, and San Juan. Monson delivered an interdisciplinary lecture-recital at the Oxford Round Table in England and was a featured lecture-recitalist for the Alban Berg International Festival in Hannover, Germany. She was an invited concert artist, lecturer, and piano master class clinician at Nanjing Normal University, China where she has been appointed a visiting guest professor. Monson has presented her research and delivered lecture-recitals at National Conferences of the College Music Society held in Minneapolis, Portland, Salt Lake City, San Antonio, and Miami. In addition, Monson has also presented solo piano recitals and piano master classes at countless universities throughout the United States and abroad.

Monson currently serves as Chair of the Provost/Chairs Forum for George Mason University. She previously served as President of Mason's chapter of Phi Beta Delta, a national honor society dedicated to recognizing scholarly achievement and excellence in international education. She also served five terms as a Faculty Senator at George Mason University and was elected by the university faculty to serve on the Mason Presidential Search Committee (2011-12). Additionally, she served on the University Provost Review Committee (2018). Serving on the Friends of Music at Mason Board and the Faculty Arts Club, Monson is also a presenter for the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute of George Mason University. In addition, Monson is a frequent performer at Mason as a solo and collaborative piano artist.

An active adjudicator in piano competitions and festivals, Monson served as a juror for the 2023 Young Artist International Piano Competition and the 2019 International Artist Piano Competition. Additionally she served as a juror for the 2018 Concerto Competition for the Sewanee Summer Music Festival and the 2016 National Symphony Orchestra piano concerto auditions for young artists. She also presented a piano master for the 2016 -17 International Piano Competition (I Institute-Beijing). Monson also served as an American Juror for the 2009 Washington International Piano Competition. She was invited as a panelist and concert commentator for the Virginia Chamber Orchestra satellite broadcasts, Music of the Romantic Era and Music by Modern Masters, which were sent to all community colleges in the United States.

A native of central Pennsylvania, Monson earned three degrees from the Peabody Conservatory of Music of the Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore: the Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Piano Performance, the Master of Music degree in Piano, and the Bachelor of Music Education Degree with a double-major in Piano and Bassoon. She also received a Diploma in Piano from Musica en Compostela, Santiago de Compostela, Spain. In addition, she studied chamber music at the Music Academy of the West, Santa Barbara, California. Monson previously served on the music faculties of the College of Notre Dame of Maryland, the Peabody Institute of the Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore School for the Arts, and Northern Virginia Community College. She is married to Dr. Keith L. Monson, a forensic scientist. The Monsons are blessed with two children, Kristofer and Linnea.

See the full listing of the Dewberry School of Music's wonderful faculty at music.gmu.edu/faculty-staff/

PROGRAM NOTE FROM THE COMPOSER

Fugalunacy (2012)

Written for two pianos in 2012 and dedicated to Drs. Linda Monson and Anna Balakerskaia, Fugalunacy and its accompanying Prelude aspires to emulate both Bach's Well-Tempered Clavier and Hindemith's Ludus Tonalis by traversing all the major and minor keys in the order of Hindemith's Series 1*, culminating with the ultimate sonority, a C and F# polychord (Stravinsky's so-called "Petrushka chord"). Sandwiched between the "intro" and "outro" preludes is the ultimate in fugalunacy, a triple fugue whose subjects travel through a myriad of tonal centers forwards, backwards, upside down and in combinations thereof.

*Series 1 is a set of pitches arranged according to tonal distance from the first pitch

The Prelude, employed as an Intro and Outro, forms a pastiche of tonal color shifts as it travels through Series 1 toward its C + F# culmination. However, I must confess that the inspiration for this construct was that it provided an opportunity to hear Linda and Anna play two measures of Boogie-Woogie in tritones!

-with love

Glenn Smith

DEWBERRY SCHOOL OF MUSIC

SPRING 2025 FACULTY ARTIST SERIES

Sunday, January 26

3:00pm

Nuove Frontiere
David Porter, tuba
Caroline Steiger, horn

Sunday, February 23

3:00pm

Duo-Piano Silver
Anniversary Concert
Linda Apple Monson &
Anna Balakerskaia, pianists

Sunday, February 16

3:00pm

The Spheres Project
Juang Huang, violin
Taylor Fleshman, harp
Gerald Fowkes, cello
Thomas J. Wible, flute

Sunday, March 2

3:00pm

Kathleen Gardiner Mulcahy, clarinet
Caroline Steiger, horn
Eunae Ko Han, piano

Sunday, March 2

7:00pm

Songs of Jesse Guessford
Jesse Guessford, composition

George Mason University

Reva and Sid Dewberry Family School of Music

For more information and a complete listing of concerts and recitals, visit the web site at music.gmu.edu

George Mason University is a registered All-Steinway School